

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 1348

By Dixie

A RESOLUTION to commend Sheeva Chourazghi-Azad for exemplary service as a legislative intern.

WHEREAS, each legislative session, this General Assembly is pleased to recognize certain persons who have committed themselves, through their adroit service, to the betterment of the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, Sheeva Chourazghi-Azad is one such individual, who has distinguished herself in her role as a legislative intern for Representative Vincent Dixie; her work has resulted in innumerable benefits for the legislators she assisted and the General Assembly as a whole; and

WHEREAS, a student at Belmont University, where she is highly regarded by her peers, Ms. Chourazghi-Azad has achieved academic success while pursuing a degree in public advocacy with a minor in political science; and

WHEREAS, during her collegiate career, Ms. Chourazghi-Azad has served as the DEI Chairwoman of Phi Mu Theta, Executive-Elect of Lambda Pi Eta, Council Leader of Towering Traditions Orientation, and a Student Apprentice for the Belmont Formation Collaborative; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Chourazghi-Azad is truly committed to her community and advancing civic engagement; she is passionate about fostering a more just, equitable, and prosperous society by empowering diverse and growing populations through advocacy, education, and public service; and

WHEREAS, Sheeva Chourazghi-Azad's global perspective has been shaped by her academic experiences, including study abroad programs in London, England; Costa Rica; and New York, New York, as well as her involvement with the University College London Iranian Society; and

WHEREAS, a leader in her community, she has contributed to youth development through the Preston-Taylor Club and the Boys & Girls Clubs of Middle Tennessee, where she designed lesson plans and cultivated inclusive, engaging learning environments for young students; and

WHEREAS, prior to her time with the legislature, Sheeva Chourazghi-Azad gained extensive experience through internships with Nashville's civic institutions, including the Historic Metro Courthouse, where she worked with Judge David Briley in Trial Court, and the First Circuit Court; she further served the Mayor's office during the "Choose How You Move" campaign, in which role she supported scheduling operations, optimized organizational systems, and led a presentation on effective social media engagement; and

WHEREAS, a recipient of the prestigious Ingram Scholarship and multiple awards for leadership and social impact, Sheeva Chourazghi-Azad has been duly recognized for her dedication to service and ethical leadership; and

WHEREAS, eager to familiarize herself with the characteristics and complexities of Tennessee State government and to further her studies, Sheeva Chourazghi-Azad brought her many abilities and singular expertise to Capitol Hill for the 2026 session of the One Hundred Fourteenth General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Chourazghi-Azad strives to create meaningful and lasting social change and has applied her experience in collaboration, critical thinking, social media management, and organizational systems to her time with the legislature; she collaborated with her fellow interns to launch "Youth Voices Against Violence: A Community Conversation," an initiative that amplifies youth perspectives on critical social issues; and

WHEREAS, throughout the 2026 legislative session, Ms. Chourazghi-Azad has surpassed all criteria that define a devoted and conscientious intern; and

WHEREAS, Sheeva Chourazghi-Azad has performed her many duties with extraordinary insight and rare decorum; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we hereby commend Sheeva Chourazghi-Azad for outstanding service as a legislative intern for Representative Vincent Dixie and extend to her our best wishes for every future success.
