

SENATE RESOLUTION 330

By White

A RESOLUTION to commend Griffin Hancock for exemplary service as a legislative intern.

WHEREAS, each legislative session, this legislative body is pleased to recognize certain persons who have committed themselves, through their adroit service, to the betterment of the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, Griffin Hancock is one such individual, who has distinguished himself in his role as a legislative intern for Senator Dawn White; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Hancock's work, his exceptionally personable demeanor, and his professionalism have resulted in innumerable benefits for the legislators he assisted, the constituents of Senate District 13, and the General Assembly as a whole; and

WHEREAS, Griffin Hancock was born in Sikeston, Missouri, to Larry Hancock and Chelsey Lowe; he was raised with the support of his grandparents, Don and Sue Moore, and his stepfather, the late Christopher Lowe; a resident of Missouri until graduating from high school, he currently resides in Murfreesboro surrounded by family, including his sister, Caroline Brown; brother-in-law, Kyle Brown; and nephews, Rhett Alan and Easton Ray; and

WHEREAS, a student at Freed-Hardeman University, where he is highly regarded by his peers, Mr. Hancock has achieved academic success while pursuing a degree in law and politics and a minor in ministry; and

WHEREAS, Griffin Hancock is a compassionate volunteer with a background in church community and camp service; he has served as a counselor and head counselor at Mid-South Youth Camp in Henderson, where he helped campers grow in friendship and faith; and

WHEREAS, while working for the youth camp, Mr. Hancock met the love of his life, Mary Grace Bolton, whom he will marry on October 10, 2026; they hope to build a family by laying a foundation built upon service to their community, the Lord, and each other; and

WHEREAS, Griffin Hancock has brought leadership and organization to his time with the legislature by assisting with the Senate Education Committee and collecting and organizing weekly calendars; and

WHEREAS, eager to familiarize himself with the characteristics and complexities of Tennessee State government and to further his studies, Mr. Hancock brought his many abilities and singular expertise to Capitol Hill for the 2026 session of the One Hundred Fourteenth General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, Griffin Hancock finds that the supportive office and kindness of all members and staff of the Tennessee General Assembly have provided him with an experience that has been beneficial beyond comprehension; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Hancock has performed his many duties with extraordinary insight and rare decorum; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we hereby commend Griffin Hancock for outstanding service as a legislative intern for Senator Dawn White and extend to him our best wishes for every future success.
