AMEND Senate Bill No. 434

House Bill No. 67*

by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting:

SECTION 1.

(a) The Tennessee advisory commission on intergovernmental relations (TACIR) shall:

(1) Study whether:

(A) Student participation in early high school graduation programs could significantly reduce school overcrowding for local education agencies that are located in fast-growing counties; and

(B) Other states provide early high school graduation incentives or programs that are not offered in this state and the results of any such incentives or programs; and

(2) Make recommendations on how this state should incentivize high school students who are enrolled in local education agencies to graduate from high school early.

(b) On or before January 31, 2026, TACIR shall report its findings and recommendations to each member of the general assembly and shall provide a copy of the report to the legislative librarian. The report may be delivered electronically.

SECTION 2. This act takes effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.
