(1) The department of education, the state board of education, local boards of education, public charter schools, LEAs, participating schools, and private schools that enroll recipients shall not hire or retain, and the state board of education shall not grant a license, reactivate an expired license, restore a revoked license, or grant a temporary teaching permit to, an individual found by the department of children's services to have committed child abuse, severe child abuse, child sexual abuse, or child neglect pursuant to title 37. The department of children's services shall not report an individual or employee as a perpetrator unless the department of children's services has first determined that the due process rights of the individual or employee were either offered but not accepted or fully exhausted or concluded, pursuant to the department of children's services rules and pursuant to state and federal law.

Once the due process rights of the individual or employee have either been offered but not accepted, or have been fully concluded and the finding upheld, the department of children's services shall disclose such finding to the department of education, the state board of education, local board of education, public charter school, LEA, participating school, or private school.

(5) If due process proceedings have been stayed due to a pending criminal charge against an individual who is currently employed or has been conditionally offered employment by the department of education, the state board of education, any local board of education, public charter school, LEA, participating school, or private school that enrolls a recipient, then the department of children's services shall notify the department of education, the state board of education, local board of education, public charter school, LEA, participating school, or private school of the pending criminal charge.

neglect, or to pose an immediate threat to the health, safety, or welfare of children. Upon submission by the local board of education, public charter school, LEA, participating school, or private school of the names of current employees and individuals who have been conditionally offered employment, the department of children's services shall timely provide the local board of education, public charter school, LEA, participating school, or private school with the information in subdivisions (e)(2)-(5).
