

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 327

By Barrett

A RESOLUTION to commemorate Ehlers-Danlos Syndromes and Hypermobility Spectrum Disorders Awareness Month.

WHEREAS, Ehlers-Danlos syndromes (EDS) are a group of thirteen heritable connective tissue disorders that together affect one in 5,000 people. Each type of EDS has its own set of symptoms, but some features are seen across all types of EDS, including joint hypermobility, skin hyperextensibility, and tissue fragility; and

WHEREAS, hypermobility spectrum disorders (HSD) are connective tissue disorders that cause joint hypermobility, instability, injury, and pain. Other symptoms, such as fatigue, headaches, GI problems, and autonomic dysfunction are also often seen as part of HSD; and

WHEREAS, there is no cure for any type of EDS or HSD; the conditions are managed by addressing a person's symptoms. EDS and HSD can cause a variety of symptoms in many different areas of the body, so people with these conditions often require multiple providers in different specialties to manage their care; and

WHEREAS, access to professionals who are knowledgeable about EDS and HSD is limited in Tennessee; lack of awareness about EDS and HSD in Tennessee and across the world stands in the way of the diagnosis, management, and research of these conditions; and

WHEREAS, awareness about EDS and HSD by both medical professionals and the general public can help improve the lives of people living with EDS and HSD in Tennessee; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED
FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE
CONCURRING, that we join with the citizens of Tennessee as they commemorate the month of May 2025 as Ehlers-Danlos Syndrome and Hypermobility Spectrum Disorders Awareness Month in the Volunteer State.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
