AMEND Senate Bill No. 895

House Bill No. 826*

by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 36-8-103(c)(7), is amended by deleting the subdivision and substituting:

(7) To have the child excused from school attendance for religious purposes; provided, however, that the child must not be excused for religious purposes for twenty (20) days or more in a single school year. If the child is absent for twenty (20) days or more during a school year for religious purposes, then the school may require the parent to attend a meeting to discuss the child's educational future;

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 36-8-103(c)(12), is amended by adding the following new subdivision:

(G) An activity approved by the school related to academic instruction.

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 36-8-103(d)(3), is amended by adding the following new subdivisions:

(F) Pursuant to subsection (d)(3)(A), if a local education agency has previously issued a blanket consent request to a parent authorizing a school official or a school nurse, licensed under § 63-7-103, to treat any injury or ailment of the parent's child that may occur on school property during regular instructional hours or extracurricular activities, including rendering emergency aide, and the parent fails to respond to such request, then a school official or school nurse may act in the best interest of the child if the child is in need of medical attention during regular instructional hours or extracurricular activities to treat an injury or ailment or render emergency aid; or

(G) In circumstances in which a local education agency has issued a blanket consent request to a parent authorizing the entity to make a video or voice recording of the parent's child on school property during regular instructional hours or extracurricular activities pursuant to subdivision (c)(12); provided, however, that parental consent must be obtained before any video or voice recording of the child is published. School officials are not required to obtain parental consent before the video or voice recording is initiated.

SECTION 4. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 63-1-176(c), is amended by adding the following new subdivisions:

(7) A person acts reasonably to render appropriate, non-emergency first aid to a minor appearing or represented to be sick or injured. Such non-emergency first aid includes, but is not limited to, dressing minor wounds, applying topical agents, providing fluids or ice, and performing checks to identify minor illnesses; or

(8) A healthcare provider providing a screening to a minor when they reasonably believe the minor may be a victim of human trafficking, exploitation, neglect, or abuse.

SECTION 5. This act takes effect July 1, 2025, the public welfare requiring it.
