

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 1236

By Hensley

A RESOLUTION to honor Reverend Jeff Kane of Westminster Presbyterian Church in Columbia on the occasion of his retirement.

WHEREAS, it is appropriate that we should honor those individuals who have answered a divine call to the ministry and who have served with dedication, vigor, and enthusiasm to perform God's work for their congregations and their communities; and

WHEREAS, Reverend Jeff Kane is one such venerable individual, who has inspired the faithful as the pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church in Columbia for more than twelve years; and

WHEREAS, Reverend Kane will soon retire to Arkansas, having served with an unwavering commitment of service to the people whose spiritual lives he guided throughout his vibrant ministry; and

WHEREAS, originally from Michigan, Reverend Kane has poured himself into the community—not only preaching the Gospel with clarity and conviction, but living it out daily through compassion, discipleship, and love for both God and people; he has been recognized for his work with at-risk youth, which showcases his commitment to social issues; and

WHEREAS, under Reverend Kane's leadership, Westminster Presbyterian Church has expanded its outreach programs, including partnerships aimed at supporting vulnerable populations, helping the un-housed; he founded the church's Room In The Inn program and its successor, Grace House; and

WHEREAS, instead of fully retiring from the ministry, Reverend Kane will serve as the senior minister at the Presbyterian church located in the retirement community that he and his wife, Carol, are moving to in Arkansas; and

WHEREAS, a true shepherd of the flock, Reverend Jeff Kane has an abiding love for the ministry; his many positive contributions to his church, his community, and this State are deeply appreciated, and it is wholly fitting that he be recognized; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we honor and congratulate Reverend Jeff Kane on the occasion of his retirement and extend to him our best wishes for much continued success and happiness.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
