

SENATE RESOLUTION 365

By Gardenhire

A RESOLUTION to honor the 100th anniversary of the Old Church Building in New Hope, Marion County.

WHEREAS, Marion County was purchased from the Cherokee Indians in 1817 and named after the Revolutionary War soldier Francis Marion; and

WHEREAS, the New Hope community is located across the Tennessee River from South Pittsburg, on the east side of Nickajack reservoir in Marion County; and

WHEREAS, in 1925, citizens of New Hope banded together to build an annex for the Methodist Church. They raised a total of $168.35 from eighty-six individuals, an average of $1.96 each plus one donation of thirty-two sacks of cement; and

WHEREAS, from March of 1926 until 1968, the building was known as Annex Methodist Church; the building and land were owned by Bettye and Gerald Thomas, the grandson of J.P. Hogan, who had constructed the building originally; and

WHEREAS, in 1974, the Antioch community became known as New Hope, which was the name of a cemetery, and was officially incorporated as a city that same year; and

WHEREAS, in 2013, Tim and Nancy Rorex purchased the old Annex Methodist Church building and lot. Afterward, they installed plumbing, updated the electricity, replaced the windows, and added air conditioning and new wood floors but maintained the original walls and cathedral ceiling; and

WHEREAS, after the renovations, on July 26, 2013, the Rorexes opened Tim and Nancy's Barber Shop and Style in the historic building; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we honor the Old Church

Building in New Hope, Marion County, owned by the Rorex family on the occasion of its 100th anniversary.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
