

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 261

By Mitchell

A RESOLUTION to honor Jared Curtis, outstanding quarterback for the Nashville Christian School state-champion football team.

WHEREAS, the members of this General Assembly take great pleasure in recognizing a young man who, having already achieved great success in high school football, will most certainly continue to shine on the gridiron as a senior and excel in all aspects of life during a bright future; and

WHEREAS, Jared Curtis, junior quarterback for state-champion Nashville Christian School (NCS), is a five-star college prospect who is nationally ranked as the number-one quarterback for the 2026 class, the number-four player overall, and the number-one player overall in Tennessee by 247Sports Composite and is ranked as the number-one player in the nation for the class of 2026 by other national recruiting services; and

WHEREAS, Jared Curtis received the 2024 Tennessee Titans Mr. Football Award, the Gatorade Tennessee Player of the Year Award, the 615Preps Player of the Year Award, and the MaxPreps Tennessee Player of the Year Award and was named a MaxPreps Junior All-American in recognition of his awe-inspiring performance as both a passer and a rusher; and

WHEREAS, although these accolades are much-deserved, Jared Curtis is quite self-effacing about his accomplishments, and he plays not for the fame but for his teammates, his coaches, his school, and for the love of the game; and

WHEREAS, during the 2024 season, Jared completed 70 percent of his passes for 2,830 yards and passed for 40 touchdowns; he also rushed for 637 yards and 18 touchdowns, compiling 3,647 total yards; and

WHEREAS, for his three-year career, he has compiled an amazing 9,328 yards and 130 total touchdowns; and

WHEREAS, an even more impressive barometer of Jared's talent is his knack for playing lights out in big games; and

WHEREAS, he led the NCS Eagles to the 2024 TSSAA Division II-A state championship with a 12-1 record that was built upon an average of 48 points scored per game and an average margin of victory of 37 points; and

WHEREAS, in the 2024 BlueCross Bowl, Jared Curtis propelled NCS to the Division II-A state championship by rushing for 60 yards and four touchdowns and passing for 158 yards and two additional touchdowns in an incredible display of athletic ability and competitive drive; and

WHEREAS, in less than a week, he led his team to the state championship and won two major individual awards; and

WHEREAS, a well-rounded and compassionate young man, Jared Curtis has volunteered in support of the Ronald McDonald House and the Cozy Sock drive that benefits Vanderbilt Children's Hospital; and

WHEREAS, Jared Curtis has distinguished himself as one of the most gifted football players and quarterbacks in the nation, and he is richly deserving of our approbation on this special occasion; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we recognize Jared Curtis as an elite quarterback and five-star college recruit, pay tribute to his exemplary 2024 season in which he led the Nashville Christian School Eagles to the Division II-A state championship, congratulate him on the many prestigious awards he has received, and wish him all the best for the 2025 football season.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
