

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 360

By Russell

A RESOLUTION to honor the efforts of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians to reclaim their ancestral lands in Monroe County.

WHEREAS, H.R. 226, a bill that seeks to return historical sites in Monroe County to the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians, passed the U.S. House of Representatives on February 4, 2025; and

WHEREAS, H.R. 226 places four parcels of specified land and easements in Monroe County into a trust for the use and benefit of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians; and

WHEREAS, the parcels of land include the acreage on which the Sequoyah Birthplace Museum is located, a twelve-acre support parcel, a one-acre island, and Chota, the original Overhill capital town of the Cherokees; and

WHEREAS, the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians has a rich history in East Tennessee, and we are pleased to commend the efforts of the Cherokee people to reclaim their historical lands in Monroe County; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we commend the efforts of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians to regain their cultural and historical lands in Monroe County.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
