

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 382

By McCalmon

A RESOLUTION to honor the Middle Tennessee Veterans Support Group on the occasion of its twenty-fifth anniversary.

WHEREAS, our country was conceived by individuals who were willing to sacrifice their personal safety and concerns to ensure our individual and collective freedom, and the Volunteer State is especially proud to be the home of so many valiant men and women who have performed above and beyond the call of duty; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of the Volunteer State have, throughout the years, willingly forsaken the comforts and securities of inaction by taking up arms against the enemies of this great nation, risking their lives and leaving their loved ones behind to honorably safeguard the freedoms and liberties guaranteed to all citizens of these United States and vanquishing those who threaten our way of life; and

WHEREAS, since its inception twenty-five years ago, the Middle Tennessee Veterans Support Group has worked to bring together veterans and the community to share information and knowledge, as well as enjoy the camaraderie that is familiar to those who have served in the military; and

WHEREAS, in January 2000, General John Frame and his friend Jim McGregor, a World War II B-24 pilot, reunited and began meeting for lunch; over the years, more veterans and supporters joined them, and since then, the group has grown to include more than 175 individuals, averaging between forty to fifty people meeting for lunch each week and including veterans from World War II, Korea, Vietnam, the Cold War, Desert Storm, the War on Terror, other conflicts, and peacetime; and

WHEREAS, the Middle Tennessee Veterans Support Group has been visited by several local political representatives, including Senator Marsha Blackburn; Williamson County and Brentwood mayors; county and city commissioners; State representatives; the county sheriff; Brentwood and Franklin police chiefs; and even Sarah Palin; and

WHEREAS, on several occasions, members of the 101st Air Assault Brigades from Fort Campbell have visited the group and are often encouraged by their commanders to do so; and

WHEREAS, since its inception, the Middle Tennessee Veterans Support Group has endeavored to honor our military men and women and thank them for the untold and innumerable sacrifices they have made to preserve the liberties we enjoy today and that our progeny will hopefully continue to cherish for generations to come; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we hereby commemorate the Middle Tennessee Veterans Support Group on the occasion of its twenty-fifth anniversary, extending to its members our best wishes for much continued success and happiness.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
