

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 1168

By Capley

A RESOLUTION to honor the memories of Preston W. Carroll and Dorothy I. "Darbo" Carroll of Clifton.

WHEREAS, it is our pleasure to acknowledge the memory of those venerable sons and daughters of Tennessee who were distinguished community leaders during their lifetimes; and

WHEREAS, two such noble citizens of the Volunteer State were Preston W. Carroll and Dorothy I. "Darbo" Carroll of Clifton, whose legacies serve as shining examples of excellence in their every endeavor; and

WHEREAS, Preston Carroll came to Wayne County in early 1952 to work on a construction job in Waynesboro; by the end of the year, he was married to the love of his life, Dorothy I. "Darbo" Cole, and the young couple would make Clifton their home; and

WHEREAS, for the first twelve years of their marriage, the Carrolls lived with Darbo's parents, Rex and Roberta Cole, in downtown Clifton and began their family, having two sons and one daughter, Preston Cole, Clyde, and Ann; and

WHEREAS, in 1961, as the expanding family needed a home of their own, Preston Carroll traveled by boat up and down the Tennessee River to locate the perfect spot for a home site, which became known as Sunset Bend and is now located at 734 W. Pillow Street; and

WHEREAS, the Carrolls' new home was built by James Cook, Sr., and took two years to complete before they moved in May 1964; that next year, the family expanded again with the birth of two more daughters, Dorothy "Jeanie" and Martha Jane "Janie"; and

WHEREAS, during his years of industry, Preston Carroll was a prominent businessman in Clifton and employed many residents of Wayne County; he owned construction companies, coal mines in Kentucky and West Virginia, a limestone mine and limestone kiln in East Tennessee, and Mid-Tenn tractor company in Nashville; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Carroll's office was located on the current site of Columbia State Community College; he also owned real estate that is now the property of the State of Tennessee, which is the site of several prisons; and

WHEREAS, an active part of his community, Mr. Carroll sponsored many of the athletic teams and sports at Frank Hughes School, where his children participated over the years; he was a dedicated member of First Presbyterian Church in Clifton, which he served as a Sunday School superintendent, elder, and teacher of the men's Sunday School class; and

WHEREAS, after their last child went off to college, the Carrolls relocated to Nashville near where their youngest daughters were attending school and spent the next nineteen years in Nashville; and

WHEREAS, upon Darbo Carroll's passing in February 2006, Preston Carroll returned to Sunset Bend and began a major renovation of the family home, which was completed in 2008, with the work done by James and Tommy Cook, the sons of the original builder; and

WHEREAS, Preston Carroll would enjoy living at Sunset Bend on the banks of the Tennessee River until his passing in November 2014; and

WHEREAS, Preston and Darbo Carroll were public-spirited citizens of the highest order and most worthy of our approbation; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we honor and commend the memories of Preston W. Carroll and Dorothy I. "Darbo" Carroll for their manifold contributions to their family, their fellow citizens, and the State of Tennessee.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
