

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 143

By Yager

A RESOLUTION to honor the memory of Michael Timme, executive director of the Tennessee Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations.

WHEREAS, the members of this General Assembly were greatly saddened to learn of the passing of Michael Timme, executive director of the Tennessee Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations; and

WHEREAS, Michael Timme, throughout his exemplary thirty-five-year tenure with the State of Tennessee, distinguished himself as a public-spirited citizen of the highest order and as an exceptional asset to his community and his State; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Timme was born in Olean, New York, to Nancy and the late Maynard Timme but moved to Tennessee in 1985 to attend Middle Tennessee State University, where he earned his Bachelor of Business Administration and Master of Business Administration degrees; and

WHEREAS, in 1990, Mr. Timme began his career with the State of Tennessee as an employee of the Office of the Comptroller of the Treasury, Division of State Audit, where he worked for two years before moving to the Department of Finance and Administration to serve as manager of grants tracking and later as the deputy director of contracts review; and

WHEREAS, he joined the staff of the Department of Education in 2002, serving as the director of contracts and purchasing for three years before moving in 2005 to the Tennessee Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations, where he faithfully served as the director of administration; and

WHEREAS, in addition to his work as a state employee, Mr. Timme worked as an instructor for the National College of Business and Technology for eleven years; and

WHEREAS, Michael Timme, known for his wry wit and sense of humor, was often heard telling staff, "I keep the thermostat in the office on cool to keep the comedy fresh"; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Timme hosted his own YouTube channel of music videos of him playing the guitar or ukulele and other videos featuring his band, The Ukedelics; and

WHEREAS, he recorded heartwarming music videos with family members, particularly with his beloved mother, Nancy, who is ninety-four, that can be viewed to brighten one's day; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Timme often entertained staff members at office lunches by playing his Collings OM1 Pete Huttlinger limited edition acoustic guitar. His herd of archtops included a Gibson ES-165 and a Washburn J-600, as well as an Eastman; and

WHEREAS, as an outdoor enthusiast, Michael Timme paused to enjoy the hiking, camping, and beautiful scenery offered by Tennessee and states across the nation; and

WHEREAS, his many accomplishments aside, Michael Timme was fortunate to spend time with his beloved mother Nancy; his children, Ruth, Clara, Anna, and Carl; grandchildren, Ivy, Abigail, Maddie, Edie, Ruby, and Eloise; and his loving partner, Carolyn Breda; and

WHEREAS, Michael Timme was wholly committed to the noble precepts of public service and ensuring the efficient and effective use of public funds, and he should be specially remembered and recognized; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we honor the memory of Michael Timme, commending his many years of distinguished and astute service to the good people of the State of Tennessee and his stalwart commitment to a job well done.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we express our sympathy and offer our condolences to the family of Mr. Timme.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
