

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 220

By Johnson

A RESOLUTION to honor and congratulate Seyi Amosun upon her selection as a 2025 Tennessee Delegate in the United States Senate Youth Program.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should pause to pay tribute to those students who, through their natural talents and unflagging commitment to excellence, have distinguished themselves as leaders in the classroom and beyond; and

WHEREAS, one such exceptional student is Seyi Amosun, who has been selected as one of the two delegates to represent Tennessee in the 2025 United States Senate Youth Program, an honor that reflects her exceptional leadership, academic achievements, and commitment to public service; and

WHEREAS, the United States Senate Youth Program is an extremely competitive merit-based program that brings together two outstanding high school students from each state and the District of Columbia to gain a deeper understanding of the federal government and its processes; and

WHEREAS, in addition to outstanding leadership abilities and a strong commitment to volunteer work, the student delegates rank academically in the top one percent of their states among high school juniors and seniors; and

WHEREAS, a senior at Ravenwood High School, Seyi Amosun has demonstrated remarkable dedication and achievement as a leader among her peers, including serving as senior class secretary, president of the Rho Kappa Social Studies Honor Society, and chief justice of Youth in Government, as well as participating in Model United Nations and serving as a member of DECA; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Amosun is also an accomplished cellist and a member of the Ravenwood High School Honors Chamber Orchestra, Williamson County Honors Orchestra, Mid-State Orchestra, and the Tennessee Youth Symphony; and

WHEREAS, she has shown a strong commitment to community service through her role as co-president of fundraising for Vanderbilt Children's Hospital through RavenwoodTHON Dance Marathon and as a volunteer with Tunes for Kidz, a nonprofit dedicated to instrument donation and music education; and

WHEREAS, Seyi Amosun's leadership abilities are also evidenced by her participation in such programs as American Legion Auxiliary Girls State, which she served as an associate justice, and Girls Nation, which she served as a senator in the 2024 Girls Nation class; and

WHEREAS, her academic excellence is reflected in her 4.7 weighted/4.0 unweighted grade point average, and she has been accepted to Harvard University, where she plans to double major in government and philosophy, with aspirations of attending law school and pursuing a career as an attorney or judge in the appellate court system; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Amosun's noteworthy achievements are a tremendous source of pride for her parents, Sola Amosun and Tobi Amosun, her school, her community, and this State; and

WHEREAS, Seyi Amosun's dedication to excellence is clearly deserving of our respect, admiration, and commendation; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we honor and congratulate Seyi Amosun upon her selection as a 2025 Tennessee Delegate in the United States Senate Youth Program and extend to her our best wishes for every continued success in her future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to
