

SENATE RESOLUTION 23

By Lamar

A RESOLUTION to honor Dr. Carol Rawls Johnson Dean in celebration of Women's Day on the Hill.

WHEREAS, Women's Day on the Hill is a time to honor the achievements of those Tennessee women who have paved the way for every person to have the opportunity to pursue the American dream; and

WHEREAS, the Volunteer State is proud to be the home of the awe-inspiring Dr. Carol Rawls Johnson Dean, a longtime educator and education administrator who recently stepped down as Interim President of LeMoyne-Owen College; and

WHEREAS, prior to this most recent role, she had served as the Executive Director of New Leaders, South Region, a national organization providing leadership development for aspiring principals and teachers; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Carol Johnson Dean's career in education includes serving as a teacher, principal, and superintendent in school systems in Boston, Massachusetts; Minneapolis, Minnesota; and Memphis, and for her good work, she was named Minnesota Superintendent of the Year and received the nation's highest honor for urban education leadership, the Richard R. Green Award; and

WHEREAS, she has further served her profession and her community as a member of several boards, including those of Facing History, City Year, the Assisi Foundation, Overton Park Conservancy, First 8 Advisory, Memphis Teacher Residency, Memphis Symphony Orchestra, and Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.; and

WHEREAS, in saluting Dr. Johnson Dean on this special occasion, let us remember that when women succeed, America succeeds, as does Tennessee; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we hereby honor and commend Dr. Carol Rawls Johnson Dean on her many contributions to the State of Tennessee as we celebrate Women's Day on the Hill.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
