

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 119

By Parkinson

A RESOLUTION to honor Adrian Maclin upon being named the 2025 Grammy Music Educator of the Year.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that we specially recognize those outstanding teachers who have devoted their careers to providing the highest quality education for Tennessee's students; and

WHEREAS, Adrian Maclin is one such estimable educator, who has distinguished himself as a professional of the greatest dedication, ability, and integrity; and

WHEREAS, a music teacher and choir director at Cordova High School, Mr. Maclin was recently named the 2025 Grammy Music Educator of the Year, an honor most befitting his devotion to his students and his profession; and

WHEREAS, the Music Educator of the Year Award was created to recognize current educators who have made a significant and lasting contribution to the field of music education and who demonstrate a commitment to the broader cause of maintaining music education in the schools; and

WHEREAS, this year's award was announced as part of a segment featuring Mr. Maclin during the CBS Mornings show; his Grammy prize includes a $10,000 honorarium and a matching $10,000 for his school's music program; and

WHEREAS, currently in his thirteenth year as Director of Choirs at Cordova High School and his nineteenth year of teaching, Adrian Maclin has built an elite music program at the school, with his concert singers winning so many awards that they are running out of space to hang them on the walls; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Maclin's groups have performed at the Southern Division of the American Choral Directors Association conference, the Tennessee Music Educators

Association conference, and in numerous music halls throughout the country, including Carnegie Hall; and

WHEREAS, in addition to his work at Cordova, he is on the Memphis-Shelby County School District Music Leadership team, in which capacity he supports his choral colleagues and novice directors; he also serves on the board of the West Tennessee Vocal Music Educator Association, which he served as president; the Tennessee Music Educators Association, which he currently serves as chair; and the board for the State Chapter of the American Choral Directors Association; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Maclin attended Memphis City Schools, where he was inspired by his middle and high school choral directors to become a music educator; he earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Music, with a minor in Vocal Performance, from Philander Smith University; and

WHEREAS, for twenty years, Adrian Maclin has served Mount Moriah – East Baptist Church as Minister of Music; he is also the Assistant Artistic Director for the Memphis Choral Arts and the primary conductor for the Memphis Men's Chorale; and

WHEREAS, in addition to his most recent honor from the Recording Academy, Mr. Maclin was honored by the Country Music Association Foundation with the Music Teachers of Excellence Award in 2020; and

WHEREAS, his many successes aside, he is most proud of his daughters, Madison and McKenzie; and

WHEREAS, Adrian Maclin is an extremely talented and compassionate educator who has worked assiduously throughout his career in education to motivate his students, fellow teachers, and staff to reach their full potential as scholars, professionals, and citizens; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Maclin truly serves as an inspiration to the faculty and staff at Cordova High School, and his friendship and counsel are highly valued by those who are fortunate to know him; and

WHEREAS, Adrian Maclin epitomizes the dedicated educator who is wholly committed to the highest ideals of public service and quality education for all, and he should be specially recognized; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we honor and congratulate Adrian Maclin on being selected as the 2025 Grammy Music Educator of the Year, commend his exceptional service to the children of Tennessee, salute his professional expertise and personal excellence, and wish him all the best in his future endeavors.
