

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 233

By Bulso

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend the Mrs. Tennessee America Pageant's reigning queens Hannah Wise, Corrin Hein, Sarah Sanderson, TaKiyah Stewart, and Arica Quinn.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should pay tribute to those worthy organizations that encourage and passionately support excellence; and

WHEREAS, the Mrs. America organization has a rich history dating back as far as 1938; this renowned national competition has won numerous pageantry awards and is recognized as the premier Mrs. pageant; and

WHEREAS, the organization epitomizes excellence, celebrates family values and professionalism, and honors the beautiful, poised, articulate women who are, in the words of Mrs. America President David Marmel, "America's greatest natural resource—the contemporary married woman"; and

WHEREAS, the fastest-growing pageant system of its kind in the world, the Mrs. America Pageant has also emerged as one of the most important pageant events; it annually attracts thousands of women representing every segment of our society; and

WHEREAS, Tennessee's premier Mrs. Pageant, the Mrs. Tennessee America Pageant is the Volunteer State's preliminary to the Mrs. America Pageant, and Mrs. Tennessee annually represents America at its best state in the Mrs. America Pageant; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Tennessee America 2024 is Hannah Wise, a thirty-one-year-old native of Nashville; she and her husband, Mitchell, are the parents of two beautiful daughters, Eloise and Remington. Mrs. Wise earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Interdisciplinary Studies with a double focus in Health and Science from Western Kentucky University and worked as an orthodontic treatment coordinator for many years; and

WHEREAS, today, Hannah Wise focuses on raising her children at home and running her mobile spray tan company, Bronzed Beauty Bar 615; a Court Appointed Special Advocate for Abused and Neglected Children (CASA), she has spent over a decade fighting to change the trajectory of the lives of children who have faced abuse and neglect and has personally raised more than $24,000 for Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital and over $8,000 for CASA and other child abuse-related charities nationwide; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Tennessee American 2024 is Corrin Stellakis Hein of Nashville, a Liberty University graduate with degrees in communication, psychology, and Christian counseling and the founder of Fit to Reign, a life-coaching enterprise that provides pageant coaching, self-development mentoring, and fitness programming; combining her passion for pageantry with her commitment to foster children, Mrs. Hein is the director of Worth More Nation Tennessee, which aims to empower girls affected by foster care and trauma, reassuring them of their worth, love, and visibility; and

WHEREAS, Corrin Hein and her husband, Joshua, enjoy traveling the world, with favorite destinations including Italy, Japan, and St. Lucia; she is also dedicated to leading a women's Bible study group every Tuesday night and deeply treasures the women she's blessed to guide in faith; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Tennessee Peoples Choice 2024 is Sarah Sanderson of Brentwood; married to retired NFL player Scott Sanderson, Mrs. Sanderson volunteers with her daughters at the E.L.I. House, a residential program that helps equip women and children after trauma, and believes service is vital to living a full life, noting that she was taught that the quickest way to enrich your own life is to do something for someone else; and

WHEREAS, Miss Tennessee for America Strong 2024 is TaKiyah Stewart of Oak Ridge; Miss Stewart proudly represents Tennessee with purpose and pride, and as a senior at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, majoring in sports communication with a minor in digital media, she is passionate about inspiring and empowering young girls to pursue their dreams and break barriers; and

WHEREAS, TaKiyah Stewart is a proud member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated, and actively contributes to Tennessee Athletics as a football recruiting operations assistant and member of the Hospitality Premium Services staff; her mission is to encourage women in sports to take up space, be confident, work hard, and never give up, believing in showing women that there is a place for them within the sports industry; and

WHEREAS, Miss Tennessee People's Choice 2024 is Arica Quinn of Murfreesboro, a powerhouse of resilience, purpose, and transformation; as the founder of His Healing Hands Kingdom Outreach, she is dedicated to making a lasting impact through faith-driven initiatives that empower individuals and communities; and

WHEREAS, a certified transformation life coach, published author, national pageant queen, and dynamic speaker, Arica Quinn uses her voice to inspire healing and self-discovery; in addition to her nonprofit work, she is an accomplished "modelpreneur" and a key advocate for empowerment and personal growth, and her journey is a testament to strength, perseverance, and the ability to turn pain into purpose; and

WHEREAS, the Mrs. Tennessee America Pageant is an exemplary organization that is wholly committed to excellence in all its endeavors and should be specially recognized; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we honor and commend the Mrs. Tennessee America Pageant's reigning queens Hannah Wise, Corrin Hein, Sarah Sanderson, TaKiyah Stewart, and Arica Quinn, extending to them our best wishes and much success in their future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
