

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 1010

By Barrett

A RESOLUTION to recognize Danny Herron on the occasion of his retirement from Habitat for Humanity of Greater Nashville.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should pause to specially recognize those citizens who have performed with uncommon devotion and enthusiasm throughout their years of public service; and

WHEREAS, Danny Herron is one such estimable individual who, having rendered over sixteen years of sterling service to Habitat for Humanity of Greater Nashville as its president and chief executive officer, will take his much-deserved retirement this year; and

WHEREAS, since its founding in 1985, the Nashville affiliate of Habitat for Humanity has built more than 1,100 homes and served approximately 4,000 family members; and

WHEREAS, a native of Middle Tennessee, Mr. Herron has held a number of leadership roles throughout his public service career and has positively impacted many within his community; and

WHEREAS, Danny Herron's impact through his leadership with Habitat for Humanity is immeasurable. Under his leadership, Habitat for Humanity of Greater Nashville has built more than 500 homes, creating over $125 million in real estate value; engaged more than 75,000 volunteer experiences and expanded its service area into surrounding counties; established a new office in a former Kmart building; and increased total organizational assets to more than $90 million; and

WHEREAS, in 2019, Habitat for Humanity of Greater Nashville hosted the Jimmy and Rosalynn Carter Work Project, attended by President and Mrs. Jimmy Carter, Trisha Yearwood, and Garth Brooks. This project resulted in the construction of twenty-one homes in Habitat's Park Preserve neighborhood, which was later completed with an additional twenty-six homes in

2025; the project also advanced plans for a $3 million renovation of the adjacent historic Parkwood Community Club ballfields and supported the establishment of a fifty-nine acre Metro Park; and

WHEREAS, in 2026, Habitat began constructing its newest single-family home community, Bella Terra, in Antioch, a development of fifty-three homes that was made possible through donor support, including a $3 million gift from The Frist Foundation and a $4.5 million grant from the Barnes Affordable Housing Trust Fund; and

WHEREAS, Habitat for Humanity of Greater Nashville operates more than 75,000 square feet of retail space through its ReStore social enterprise, with stores located in Davidson, Wilson, and Dickson counties; and

WHEREAS, ReStore generates approximately $5 million in annual sales to support Habitat's mission and build more than thirty quality affordable homes each year; through the stores, more than 1,500 tons of materials are diverted from local landfills annually and more than forty people across three counties are employed; and

WHEREAS, Danny Herron is a graduate of Leadership Nashville and was named one of Nashville's Most Admired CEOs by the Nashville Business Journal in 2020; he was included in The Nashville Post's "In Charge" list in 2025, which recognizes business, political, and civic leaders across Middle Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Herron previously held a variety of leadership roles in banking and real estate prior to joining Habitat; from 1993 to 2007, he served as president and CEO of a local community bank, and he currently serves on the board of directors of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Cincinnati as an independent public interest director, a position he has held since 2022; and

WHEREAS, Danny Herron has described leading Habitat for Humanity of Greater Nashville as a privilege and has emphasized the organization's mission of putting God's love into action by bringing people together to build homes, communities, and hope; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Herron exemplifies the spirit and allegiance to family and community that are characteristic of a true Tennessean; and

WHEREAS, throughout his illustrious tenure, Danny Herron has carried out his responsibilities with diligence and integrity, and his remarkable success as a public servant and civic leader has set the mold for all who will follow; and

WHEREAS, a strong advocate for the citizens of Middle Tennessee, Mr. Herron has compiled a singular record of success during his exemplary public service career, and he should be specially recognized; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we honor and commend Danny Herron for his honorable and astute service to the people of Tennessee as president and chief executive officer of Habitat for Humanity of Greater Nashville and extend to him our best wishes for a happy and fulfilling retirement.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
