

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 1090

By Atchley

A RESOLUTION to recognize and honor Clinical Director of Safe Harbor Child Advocacy Center Rose Gainey on the occasion of her retirement.

WHEREAS, it is most fitting that the members of this General Assembly should acknowledge and applaud those community leaders who are wholly devoted to enhancing the quality of life for their fellow citizens and improving and enriching the place they all call home; and

WHEREAS, one such noteworthy person is Rose Gainey, LPC, of Seymour, who has distinguished herself as a citizen of the greatest dedication, ability, and integrity; and

WHEREAS, after nearly fifteen years as Clinical Director of Safe Harbor Child Advocacy Center, Rose Gainey is taking her much-deserved retirement, bringing to a close an extraordinary tenure of guiding Safe Harbor's therapeutic care with unwavering compassion, profound skill, and inspiring leadership; and

WHEREAS, born on August 16, 1959, in Indianapolis, Indiana, Mrs. Gainey was raised in Indianapolis and in Northern Kentucky alongside her five siblings; after graduating from Ben Davis High School in 1977, she earned her degree in business administration from Indiana University-Indianapolis School of Business; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Gainey's journey with Safe Harbor began in 2011, when she came on board as a therapy intern and first demonstrated her unique ability to connect with and nurture young people; she graduated from Johnson University in 2012 with a Master of Arts degree in Marriage and Family Therapy and obtained her LPC/MHSP and LMFT licensure in the State of Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, she was hired by Safe Harbor Child Advocacy Center as a therapist on May 7, 2012, and since that time, she has served children throughout Sevier, Cocke, Grainger, and Jefferson counties with the utmost care and compassion; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Gainey's exceptional dedication, skill, and wisdom soon propelled her to the role of Clinical Director of the Therapy Program, in which capacity she provides expert guidance and supervision and has grown her team of therapists from one to five members, ensuring her service area has access to dedicated child and family advocates; and

WHEREAS, Rose Gainey and her team provide trauma-focused therapy services that help ensure that child and adolescent survivors of abuse are not defined by their trauma, but empowered to find hope, strength, and true healing; and

WHEREAS, during her time with Safe Harbor, Mrs. Gainey has conducted or facilitated over 23,000 therapy sessions, positively impacting the lives of countless young people and their families; and

WHEREAS, her legacy is one of loyalty, kindness, humility and compassion, and her indelible contributions to Safe Harbor and the region she served will continue to inspire others for years to come; and

WHEREAS, throughout her many worthy endeavors, Mrs. Gainey has enjoyed the love and support of her husband of over forty years, Wes Gainey; their children, Megan, Kristen, and Matt; and grandchildren, Olivia Rose, James Ezekiel, and Nora Rose; and

WHEREAS, Rose Gainey epitomizes the spirit and commitment that are characteristic of a true Tennessean; and

WHEREAS, the members of this General Assembly find it appropriate to acknowledge and applaud Mrs. Gainey for her compassionate service and dedication to the children of the State of Tennessee; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we recognize and honor Clinical Director of Safe Harbor Child Advocacy Center Rose Gainey and extend to her our best wishes for a happy, fulfilling retirement.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
