

HOUSE RESOLUTION 190

By Lamberth

A RESOLUTION to honor Chase Ingle upon his exemplary service to House Majority Leader William Lamberth and the Tennessee General Assembly.

WHEREAS, it is appropriate that the members of this General Assembly should honor those invaluable legislative employees who have performed with unwavering devotion and enthusiasm throughout their tenure with the General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, Chase Ingle, former Chief Adviser to House Majority Leader William Lamberth, is one such estimable professional, who rendered sterling service from the commencement of his employment with the House Republican Caucus in January 2023; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Ingle was an integral member of Leader Lamberth's team, providing counsel on key legislation and government issues and serving as a primary communication channel between the House Republican Caucus, the Senate Republican Caucus, and the administration of Governor Bill Lee; and

WHEREAS, in this capacity, he worked closely with members of the General Assembly to advance legislative priorities, demonstrating sound judgment, discretion, and a keen understanding of the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, Chase Ingle brought to his role a wealth of prior experience in public service, including his work as Director of External Affairs for the Tennessee Public Charter School Commission and as a legislative assistant to members of the General Assembly, as well as his early service as a legislative intern; and

WHEREAS, a native of Sevier County, Mr. Ingle is a graduate of the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree; and

WHEREAS, during his distinguished tenure with the House Republican Caucus, Chase Ingle not only excelled in his official duties, but he also contributed to the smooth operation of the Majority Leader's office through his attention to detail, his steady leadership, and his handling of the various and sundry matters that arise in the course of legislative service; and

WHEREAS, Chase Ingle demonstrated the utmost professionalism, ability, and integrity throughout his service, winning the sincere respect and admiration of his colleagues and the members of the General Assembly; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we honor and commend Chase Ingle for his exemplary service to House Majority Leader William Lamberth and the Tennessee General Assembly and wish him all the best in his future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
