AMEND Senate Bill No. 1907

House Bill No. 1464*

by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting:

SECTION 1. This act is known and may be cited as "The Chance Carlton Act."

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 7-51-210(a), is amended by adding the following new subdivision:

() "Electrical lineman" means an individual who:

(A) Installs, maintains, or repairs electrical transmission and power distribution systems; and

(B) Is employed by a local government or an entity that contracts with a local government for the installation, maintenance, or repair of such systems;

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 7-51-210(b), is amended by adding the language "or electrical lineman" after "emergency responder" wherever it may appear.

SECTION 4. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 7-51-210(d), is amended by deleting the period at the end of the subsection and substituting ", or being both an emergency responder and an electrical lineman."

SECTION 5. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 7-51-210, is amended by adding the following as a new subsection:

(f) A denial of a claim made under this section by the estate of an electrical lineman is subject to review by the department of finance and administration within ninety (90) days of the denial. The department of finance and administration has the authority to review the claim and issue a final order, which is binding upon this state.

The department of finance and administration shall cause copies of the final order to be delivered to the claimant's estate and the department of finance and administration.

SECTION 6. This act takes effect July 1, 2026, the public welfare requiring it.
