

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 596

By Briggs

A RESOLUTION to honor the memory of Harold Wayne Sellars of Farragut.

WHEREAS, the members of this General Assembly were greatly saddened to learn of the passing of Harold Wayne Sellars; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Sellars was a highly respected member of his community and a consummate professional who worked assiduously to improve the quality of life for his fellow citizens in numerous capacities; and

WHEREAS, born November 16, 1942, in Erwin, Wayne Sellars was the youngest of eight children and was raised with strong values of faith, family, and service that guided him throughout his life; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Sellars honorably served his country as a member of the United States Air Force from 1964 to 1968, attaining the rank of Staff Sergeant and completing a tour of duty at Takhli Royal Thai Air Force Base in Thailand during the Vietnam War; and

WHEREAS, following his military service, Wayne Sellars graduated from East Tennessee State University with a degree in marketing; he went on to build a successful career as an investment advisor with Nationwide Retirement Solutions, where he served as Area Director for the Central and East Tennessee regions; and

WHEREAS, deeply committed to civic engagement and community service, Mr. Sellars was a member of the Concord-Farragut Republican Club and the Optimist Club, a life member of Vietnam Veterans of America Chapter 1078, a board member of the Teen Board of Knoxville, and a faithful member of Concord United Methodist Church; and

WHEREAS, Wayne Sellars married his childhood sweetheart, Jeanne Evans, on June 26, 1965; the couple had met in first grade, and together they shared more than sixty years of marriage marked by faith, devotion, and enduring love; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Sellars found his greatest joy in time spent with his family; he was involved with his grandson's activities in baseball and martial arts and in their shared love of University of Tennessee sports, rarely missing a Big Orange football tailgate; and

WHEREAS, Wayne Sellars was deeply devoted to his family, and he always endeavored to remain true to family values of the highest order; and

WHEREAS, he was preceded in death by his parents, John Henon Sellars and Winnie Sellars; three sisters; and four brothers; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Sellars leaves behind an indelible legacy of integrity and probity in public life, compassion and loyalty in private life, and diligence and dedication in all his chosen endeavors; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that we pause to remember the bountiful life of this exceptional public servant and human being; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we honor the memory of Harold Wayne Sellars, reflecting fondly upon his impeccable character and his stalwart commitment to living the examined life with courage and conviction.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we express our sympathy and offer our condolences to the family of Mr. Sellars.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
