AMEND Senate Bill No. 374*

House Bill No. 1358

by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting:

SECTION 1.

(a) By July 1, 2025, the speakers shall appoint a study committee to plan for the building of an appropriate facility in the western grand division of Tennessee to house children who are being detained, pursuant to § 37-1-114, while awaiting adjudication on allegations of delinquency or unruliness.

(b) The study committee shall be composed of:

(1) The following members to be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives:

- (A) A sheriff from a county in the western grand division;
- (B) A judge from a county in the western grand division; and
- (C) Two (2) members of the house of representatives; and

(2) The following members to be appointed by the speaker of the senate:

- (A) A sheriff from a county in the western grand division;
- (B) A judge from a county in the western grand division; and
- (C) Two (2) members of the senate.

(c) The members of the study committee shall receive no compensation for their service on the committee, nor are the members entitled to per diem or travel expenses for the purposes of carrying out their duties under this section.

(d) The study committee shall determine and make recommendations for the location of the facility, the number of beds to be included, and the entity that should operate the facility. The recommendations must be submitted to the speakers of the house of representatives and senate by January 1, 2026, at which time the study committee shall cease to exist.

SECTION 2. This act takes effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.
