

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 374

By Oliver

A RESOLUTION to recognize Seanne Wilson on the occasion of her retirement.

WHEREAS, it is appropriate that this General Assembly should honor those citizens who have performed with uncommon devotion and enthusiasm throughout their careers in public service; and

WHEREAS, Seanne Wilson is one such individual, who has recently retired after a distinguished and purpose-filled career in public service and higher education, culminating in sixteen years of exceptional service at Tennessee State University (TSU); and

WHEREAS, Ms. Wilson began her professional journey with the State of Tennessee at the Department of Labor and Workforce Development and later served with distinction at the Department of Commerce and Insurance; and

WHEREAS, a proud third-generation graduate of Tennessee State University, Seanne Wilson returned to her beloved alma mater to begin a new and impactful chapter, initially serving in the Office of the President as executive assistant to Dr. Melvin N. Johnson, the seventh president of TSU, and subsequently working under interim president Dr. Portia Holmes Shields, who appointed Ms. Wilson to the Office of Alumni Relations and Annual Giving; and

WHEREAS, she was later promoted by TSU's eighth president, Dr. Glenda Glover, to serve as director of the TSU Women's Center within the Division of Student Affairs, a role in which she flourished for more than a decade, empowering, uplifting, and transforming the lives of young women on campus; and

WHEREAS, under her leadership, the TSU Women's Center became a beacon of support and advancement for women, and Ms. Wilson led the celebrated Women of Legend and Merit Awards Dinner for ten years, an event that honored outstanding women and inspired countless students; and

WHEREAS, Seanne Wilson's tireless commitment extended beyond the Women's Center, as she contributed meaningfully to the success of the TSU Homecoming Committee and Gala, and cultivated strong relationships with colleagues, students, alumni, and community leaders who became lifelong friends and partners; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Wilson is also an accomplished author and advocate for empowering individuals to heal from trauma, particularly through her books Overcoming Me and Overcoming You, as well as her podcast and speaking engagements at conferences, churches, and schools; and

WHEREAS, her unwavering commitment to supporting others on their journey to success, her focus on resilience, and her belief that it is never too late to transform one's life have inspired countless individuals to overcome challenges and embrace new opportunities; and

WHEREAS, Seanne Wilson's distinguished career in public service and higher education exemplifies her dedication to improving the lives of all Tennesseans, and she should be specially recognized; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we hereby recognize and commend Seanne Wilson for her honorable and astute service to the people of Tennessee, extending our heartfelt wishes for a happy and fulfilling retirement and every continued success in her future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
