

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 439

By Massey

A RESOLUTION to recognize Joseph Galbato III on the occasion of his retirement.

WHEREAS, it is appropriate that we should honor those citizens who have performed with uncommon devotion and enthusiasm throughout their years of public service; and

WHEREAS, Joseph Galbato III of Franklin is one such estimable person, who has served with distinction since October 2011 as the Tennessee Department of Transportation's (TDOT) Chief of Administration, Deputy Commissioner, and Chief Financial Officer (CFO); and

WHEREAS, Mr. Galbato will be taking his much-deserved retirement this year, bringing to a close fourteen years of steady, devoted leadership at TDOT; and

WHEREAS, as TDOT's Chief of Administration, Deputy Commissioner, and CFO, Joe Galbato is responsible for financial oversight of the department, including budget preparation, budget management, and federal highway reimbursement; and

WHEREAS, he also oversees several divisions of TDOT, including Human Resources, Finance, Information Technology, Procurement, Civil Rights, and Internal Audit and was integral in the development and implementation of several key initiatives to modernize the department, including Empowering People, Influencing Culture (EPIC) and Integrated Program Delivery (IPD); and

WHEREAS, Joe Galbato has worked to ensure the financial integrity of the department by instituting several financial controls regarding TDOT spending, initiating cash principles, and modernizing forecast methods; he has been a trusted resource for the General Assembly and the executive branch; and

WHEREAS, highly regarded by his colleagues and those he serves, Mr. Galbato is an active member of the American Association of State Highway and Transportation Officials and served as TDOT's interim commissioner from October 2021 to May 2022; and

WHEREAS, Joe Galbato was born in Jamestown, New York, to Dr. Joseph Galbato, Jr., and Alyce Wolfe Galbato; he graduated magna cum laude from the State University of New York, where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Finance; and

WHEREAS, he was a four-year member of the State University of New York's varsity baseball team and joined the Philadelphia Phillies as a free agent for spring training in 1987; and

WHEREAS, prior to joining TDOT, Mr. Galbato served as CFO for multiple healthcare companies in Nashville, including Alive Hospice, HCCA International, and Envoy/WebMD; and

WHEREAS, a talented singer-songwriter, Mr. Galbato has released multiple records of original music, a passion that he intends to pursue further in retirement; and

WHEREAS, he will also spend more time with his wife, Linda, and their three children, Joseph IV, Katelyn, and Thomas; and

WHEREAS, throughout his estimable career, Joe Galbato has demonstrated the utmost professionalism, ability, and integrity; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we extend to Joseph Galbato III our heartfelt wishes for a happy and fulfilling retirement and every continued success in his future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to
