

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 508

By Bailey

A RESOLUTION to recognize Trooper Shane Moore on the occasion of his retirement.

WHEREAS, our nation was conceived by individuals who were willing to sacrifice their personal concerns to ensure the public safety and welfare, and the Volunteer State is especially proud to be the home of so many valiant individuals; and

WHEREAS, one such individual is Trooper Shane Moore of the Tennessee Highway Patrol, who, having rendered sterling service to the people of the State of Tennessee for more than twenty years, has taken his much-deserved retirement this year; and

WHEREAS, Trooper Shane Moore graduated from the Tennessee Highway Patrol Academy in 2000; upon his graduation, he was assigned to Troop C of the Nashville District, in which position he served from 2000 to 2013 and covered Montgomery, Stewart, and Houston counties; and

WHEREAS, in 2008, Trooper Moore attended K9 training school and received a dual-purpose dog, which was utilized in tracking people and narcotics, and in 2013, he transferred to the K9 division within the Department of Safety to train newly assigned K9 handlers and their partners; and

WHEREAS, Trooper Shane Moore became a part of the Capitol Protection Unit in 2019, where he served as a handler of an explosive detector canine; during his time with the unit, he conducted several seminars with various leadership groups, educating the public on the task and training of explosive detector canines; and

WHEREAS, following the Christmas Day bombing in Nashville in 2020, Trooper Moore and his K9 Sumo were one of many K9 units employed to detect any secondary devices that may have been placed after the explosion, putting their safety aside for the safety of the citizens of Nashville; and

WHEREAS, Trooper Shane Moore remained with the Capitol Protection Unit until taking his much-deserved retirement in January 2025, and since then, he has pursued pastoral leadership at his local church; and

WHEREAS, throughout his distinguished tenure with the Tennessee Highway Patrol, Trooper Moore had the pleasure of passing on a wealth of knowledge to his peers and working with five K9s: Kony, Black, Tonja, Sumo, and Maro; and

WHEREAS, Trooper Moore epitomizes the spirit and commitment that are characteristic of a true Tennessean, and his professionalism and dedication to serving his community are evident to all who know him; and

WHEREAS, we find it appropriate to recognize and applaud Trooper Shane Moore for his dedication to the State of Tennessee and its citizens; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we hereby recognize Trooper Shane Moore of the Tennessee Highway Patrol on the occasion of his retirement, thank him for his meritorious service, and extend to him our best wishes for every future success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
