

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 1001

By Roberts

A RESOLUTION to honor Charlie Becker of Nashville on his outstanding success in college football

WHEREAS, the members of this General Assembly take great pleasure in recognizing a young man from Tennessee who has achieved great success in college football; and

WHEREAS, Charlie Becker of Nashville helped his Indiana Hoosiers football team reach the pinnacle of college football by winning the College Football Playoff National Championship on January 19, 2026, in Miami, Florida; and

WHEREAS, the son of Dave Becker and Tracy Becker, Charlie Becker attended grade school at St. Matthew Catholic School in Franklin and was a star athlete at Father Ryan High School, where he won state championships in the 110-meter hurdles, 300-meter hurdles, and the 4x400-meter relay; and

WHEREAS, on the high school gridiron, Charlie Becker earned TSSAA Division II AAA West Region Offensive MVP honors as a senior and was named first-team All-Region as both a junior and a senior; and

WHEREAS, after finishing his high school football career, Charlie Becker, a six-foot-four wide receiver, was recruited by a number of college programs; he ultimately chose to accept a scholarship from Indiana University; and

WHEREAS, "Charlie B from Nashville, Tennessee" played primarily on special teams during his freshman season and at the start of this past season before being called on to play a bigger role when starting wide receiver Elijah Sarratt went down with an injury in October; and

WHEREAS, taking advantage of the chemistry he had developed with his roommate, Heisman Trophy-winner Fernando Mendoza, during their extensive summer work outs and passing drills, Charlie Becker rose to the challenge and quickly became a fan favorite and one of Indiana's top receivers; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Becker made big catches at key times in several of the Hoosier's biggest wins down the stretch of their undefeated season, including the game-clinching reception in the Big Ten Championship against The Ohio State University, as well as four catches for ninety-nine yards and two touchdowns in Indiana's two College Football Playoff games before the national championship game; and

WHEREAS, in the championship game, Charlie Becker recorded sixty-five yards, including a nineteen-yard catch on fourth and five as well as another nineteen-yard catch on third and seven, to extend scoring drives as Indiana defeated the Miami Hurricanes, 27-21, to secure the Hoosier's first national football championship; and

WHEREAS, Charlie Becker regularly publicly shares his faith and declared after the Big Ten Championship, "All glory to God. Without Him, none of this would be possible, so all glory to Him."; and

WHEREAS, Charlie Becker has distinguished himself as one of the most gifted college football players in the nation, and he is richly deserving of our approbation; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we honor Charlie Becker of Nashville on his many accomplishments in college football as a wide receiver for the National Champion Indiana Hoosiers and wish him much continued success in his future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
