

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 1053

By Campbell

A RESOLUTION to honor and congratulate Audrey Jean Glodé Campbell on the occasion of her ninetieth birthday.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should pay tribute to those citizens who are celebrating special occasions in their estimable lives; and

WHEREAS, Audrey Jean Glodé Campbell celebrates her ninetieth birthday on May 3, 2026, a milestone commemorated as yet another precious souvenir of life's rich pageant; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Campbell, the beloved mother of our esteemed colleague Senator Heidi Campbell, has lived an amazing life and has experienced firsthand the breadth and span of American history; and

WHEREAS, born Audrey Jean Glodé in Chadron, Nebraska, on May 3, 1936, Audrey Campbell grew up with a sister, Gretchen, and brother, Mike, and was a state champion flautist during high school; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Campbell earned her Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Nebraska Nursing School and her master's degree in education from the University of Rochester in New York; she taught psychiatric nursing at the University of Rochester, the University of Texas in Galveston, and the University of Colorado; and

WHEREAS, she became a resident of Nashville in 1970 and was married to renowned Nashville cardiologist Bart Campbell for sixty-six years; the couple were blessed with three children, Brent, Heather, and Senator Heidi Campbell; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Campbell is called "Nena" by her grandchildren—Kendrick, Hugh, Connor, Blair, Campbell, and Atticus—and great-grandchildren—Margot and Audrey—and her alter-ego-ideal, Imaginary Nena, is legendary, as there is no challenge she will not meet, no trip she will not take, and no problem she cannot solve; and

WHEREAS, she is also lovingly referred to as The Mega Horn (a.k.a. Old Flappy Lips) by her family—there is no secret that she will keep; and

WHEREAS, a prolific author, Audrey Campbell is known as the Poet Laureate of Radnor Lake; she has written and published multiple volumes of poetry, several children's books, and a play—Our Family Troubles: The Legend of the Bell Witch, which had a highly successful run in Nashville; and

WHEREAS, in the 1980s and 1990s, Ms. Campbell was a celebrated community actress, performing as a lead in many productions, including Lu Ann Hampton Laverdy Oberlander, Sister Mary Ignatius Explains it All for You, and Antigone; she also served on the board of the Nashville Children's Theater, and for more than a decade, she performed a weekly story hour at the Green Hills Library for Nashville's pre-K children; and

WHEREAS, in addition to her talents as a writer and actress, Audrey Campbell has exhibited great skill in creating stained-glass, pottery, and needlepoint, as well as with quilting and illustrating; and

WHEREAS, her other abilities include making the best chocolate chip cookies, vegetable soup, and Grandma Glodé cinnamon rolls, and rolling off a sailboat, into the brink, without spilling her drink; and

WHEREAS, Audrey Campbell is a member in good standing with the United Peafowl Association and has bred and beheld multiple varieties; she is also a bell-ringer at Westminster Presbyterian Church in Nashville; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Campbell is a joy to be around and a blessing to all who have the good fortune of knowing her, and she is a great friend to those in her Friday Morning Coffee Group, Second Saturday Dinner Group, and Sunday Evening Salons; and

WHEREAS, as Ms. Campbell marks her ninetieth birthday, she remains a beloved member of the Nashville community, admired for her faith, integrity, and enthusiasm for life; and

WHEREAS, we wish to grasp this golden opportunity to specially recognize one of Tennessee's most outstanding citizens on this very special occasion; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we recognize and honor Audrey Jean Glodé Campbell on the celebration of her ninetieth birthday and extend to her our best wishes for many happy returns of the day.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
