

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 1089

By Southerland

A RESOLUTION to honor and congratulate Julie Slagle upon winning second place at the National Sweet Sorghum Producers and Processors Association's annual Culinary Contest.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should recognize those Tennesseans who, through dedication to their craft and preservation of traditional practices, bring distinction to this State; and

WHEREAS, Julie Slagle of Unicoi County has distinguished herself through her skill in the time-honored art of sorghum syrup production; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Slagle was awarded second place in the culinary category at the National Sweet Sorghum Producers and Processors Association's fortieth annual conference and national contest held March 4-6 in Pigeon Forge, earning national recognition for her standout sorghum ice cream; and

WHEREAS, the daughter of first-place winner Marlin Hensley, Julie Slagle is part of a four-generation family farm deeply rooted in the community, where traditional methods of sorghum production have been preserved and practiced across generations; and

WHEREAS, representing the next generation of this proud family tradition, Ms. Slagle carries forward the Hensley Hills Farm legacy while maintaining its strong and enduring roots; and

WHEREAS, Julie Slagle's achievement is a testament to her commitment to excellence and her role in sustaining Tennessee's rich agricultural heritage; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Slagle's dedication to excellence is clearly deserving of our respect, admiration, and commendation; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we honor and congratulate Julie Slagle upon winning second place at the National Sweet Sorghum Producers and Processors Association's annual Culinary Contest and extend to her our best wishes for continued success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
