

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 1189

By Walley

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend Michael Davis, director of Hardin County Schools, on the occasion of his retirement.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that we should specially recognize those outstanding professionals who have devoted their careers to providing the highest-quality education and learning environments for Tennessee's students; and

WHEREAS, one such exceptional individual is Michael Davis, who, having rendered nearly thirty years of service as an educator and administrator, will take his much-deserved retirement from the Hardin County school system in June 2026; and

WHEREAS, born on September 23, 1967, Mr. Davis is the son of William and Nancy Davis and the brother of Susan Liddon and the late John Davis; he is a lifelong resident of Hardin County and a 1985 graduate of Hardin County High School; and

WHEREAS, Michael Davis continued his education at Martin Methodist College on a golf scholarship before earning a bachelor's degree in education from the University of Memphis in 1998; and

WHEREAS, shortly thereafter, Mr. Davis began his career in education at Hardin County Middle School, where he taught and made an immediate impact on his students while also serving as the golf coach at Hardin County High School; and

WHEREAS, in August 2001, Michael Davis earned a master's degree from Freed-Hardeman University, paving the way for a distinguished career in school leadership; he went on to serve as assistant principal and principal of Hardin County Middle School, where he was known for his steady leadership, strong relationships, and commitment to student success; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Davis later transitioned to the Hardin County Board of Education Central Office, serving as a supervisor and continuing to influence teaching and learning across the district; and

WHEREAS, he was duly named Director of Schools for Hardin County in March 2014, a role he has served in with dedication, integrity, and vision, working assiduously to ensure that each student is prepared for success beyond graduation; and

WHEREAS, throughout his tenure as director, Mr. Davis has been a champion for students, educators, and the entire Hardin County community; his leadership has been defined by a focus on academic growth, expanding student opportunities, supporting educators, and strengthening school-community partnerships; and

WHEREAS, known for his approachable nature, servant leadership, and deep-rooted love for Hardin County, Michael Davis has impacted thousands of students, families, and educators throughout his distinguished tenure, and his legacy is reflected not only in the district's progress but also in the countless relationships he has built along the way; and

WHEREAS, his many professional accomplishments aside, Mr. Davis is most grateful for the love and support he shares with his wife, Tamara Willoughby Davis, a devoted educator who has served as a curriculum facilitator at Northside Elementary School; together, the couple share two sons, John Patrick and Willoughby; and

WHEREAS, throughout his estimable career in education, Michael Davis has demonstrated the utmost professionalism, ability, and integrity, winning the unbridled respect and admiration of the students, parents, teachers, and board members of Hardin County Schools; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we extend to Michael Davis, director of Hardin

County Schools, our heartfelt wishes for a happy and fulfilling retirement, applaud his dedication to the youth of Tennessee, and wish him much happiness and every continued success in his future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
