

SENATE RESOLUTION 290

By Oliver

A RESOLUTION to honor and commemorate the opening of Forward Creative Commons at Bordeaux.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this legislative body should recognize those occasions that enrich the civic and cultural life of our communities and bring Tennesseans together in purpose, creativity, and service; and

WHEREAS, the opening of Forward Creative Commons at Bordeaux marks such an occasion, representing a visionary new space for the people of North Nashville—a place where learning, art, connection, and wellness come together under one roof; and

WHEREAS, this transformative initiative is the result of a meaningful partnership between FiftyForward Bordeaux and Creative Girls Rock, two respected nonprofit organizations whose missions reflect deep commitments to empowerment and lifelong growth; and

WHEREAS, FiftyForward has long served as a trusted resource and advocate for adults aged fifty and older in Middle Tennessee, enhancing lives through programs that promote independence, wellness, community connection, and purposeful aging; and

WHEREAS, Creative Girls Rock's mission is to educate and empower young girls and women to utilize their creative talents to enhance their lives and the world around them, fostering opportunities for creative expression, confidence, resilience, and personal growth; and

WHEREAS, Forward Creative Commons at Bordeaux embodies the values of both organizations, offering an intergenerational and inclusive environment where older adults, youth, artists, families, and community leaders may gather, create, and grow together; and

WHEREAS, this milestone would not have been possible without the vision and leadership of Sallie Hussey, Chief Executive Officer of FiftyForward, and Charmin Bates,

Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Creative Girls Rock, whose dedication to service and equity continues to inspire lasting impact across Nashville and beyond; and

WHEREAS, Forward Creative Commons stands not only as a physical space, but as a symbol of what is possible through collaboration, creativity, and shared investment in the future of our neighborhoods; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we honor and commemorate the opening of Forward Creative Commons at Bordeaux, celebrate the powerful partnership between FiftyForward and Creative Girls Rock, and commend Sallie Hussey and Charmin Bates for their extraordinary leadership and service to the people of Tennessee.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
