

SENATE RESOLUTION 331

By Akbari

A RESOLUTION to honor Reverend Shavon Arline-Bradley, keynote speaker for the 113th Founders Day Observance of the Memphis Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that we should salute those individuals who, through their extraordinary efforts, have distinguished themselves as leaders of whom we can all be proud;
and

WHEREAS, one such noteworthy individual is Reverend Shavon Arline-Bradley, who is the keynote speaker this year at Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., Memphis Alumnae Chapter's 113th Founders Day Observance; and

WHEREAS, a truly inspirational leader, Reverend Shavon Arline-Bradley is the president and chief executive officer of the National Council of Negro Women and has more than two decades of experience in health care, diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI), government affairs, and executive leadership; and

WHEREAS, Reverend Shavon Arline-Bradley is also the founding principal and CEO of R.E.A.C.H. Beyond Solutions, a public health, advocacy, and executive leadership firm that promotes DEI, political and organizational strategy, risk management, government affairs, and technical assistance; and

WHEREAS, prior to establishing R.E.A.C.H., she served as a senior advisor and the director of external engagement with the United States Department of Health and Human Services under the 19th U.S. Surgeon General, Dr. Vice Admiral Vivek H. Murthy, and enjoyed a tenure as the executive vice president of strategic planning and partnerships and chief of staff with the NAACP; and

WHEREAS, Reverend Arline-Bradley has served in a leadership capacity with a number of groups and organizations, including Delta Women for Action, NAACP Board of Directors Health Committee, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., the National Social Action Commission, and the Oprah Winfrey Network "OWN Your Health" initiative; and

WHEREAS, lending her time and talents to a number of worthy endeavors, she is an active member of the American Public Health Association, Links, Inc., and Jack & Jill of America, Inc.; and

WHEREAS, a native of New Jersey, Reverend Arline-Bradley holds an undergraduate degree from Tulane University in New Orleans, Louisiana, and a Master of Divinity degree from the Samuel Dewitt Proctor School of Theology at Virginia Union University; she has completed an Executive Certificate of Business Management from Howard University and an Executive Certificate in Diversity and Inclusion from Cornell University; and

WHEREAS, throughout all of her professional endeavors, Reverend Arline-Bradley has enjoyed the love and support of her husband, Andrew Bradley, and her two children; and

WHEREAS, it is most fitting that we honor this inspirational leader on this special occasion; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we welcome Reverend Shavon Arline-Bradley to Tennessee, commend her many contributions to public service and the greater good, and extend to her our best wishes for much continued success in all her endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.