A RESOLUTION to commemorate March 18, 2026, as AARP
Tennessee Day.

WHEREAS, in furtherance of its mission to empower individuals fifty-plus-years-old to choose how they live as they age, AARP advocates for its members on critical priorities, such as strengthening caregiving, protecting seniors from fraud, and ensuring all Americans have independence and choice as they age; and

WHEREAS, AARP of Tennessee serves as a one-stop resource for information on the State's fifty-plus population and offers programs and tools that help Tennesseans make the best decisions about their health and financial security; and

WHEREAS, in addition to providing information for its members, AARP of Tennessee has fought for the passage of legislation protecting its 670,000 members, including the creation of the Tennessee Department of Disability and Aging; and

WHEREAS, the organization supports family caregivers throughout Tennessee by providing free resources, workshops, and special events; and

WHEREAS, AARP is actively promoting health security in Tennessee by identifying opportunities for fitness, brain health, and lifestyle decisions; and

WHEREAS, AARP's Fraud Watch Network delivers critical alerts and resources to help all Tennesseans avoid becoming victims of a scam and maintains relationships with law enforcement and State agencies to fight fraud and elder exploitation; and

WHEREAS, most of AARP's members want to stay in their own homes and communities for as long as possible, and to that end, AARP helps Tennessee cities, towns, and counties become great places to live for those of all ages through its Network of Age Friendly States and Communities; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we commemorate March 18, 2026, as AARP Tennessee Day at the Capitol and extend our best wishes for continued success in AARP's very important mission of improving the lives of fifty-plus-years-old citizens and their families throughout Tennessee.
