

HOUSE RESOLUTION 109

By Miller

A RESOLUTION to honor the Intern basketball team for defeating the Member team for the second straight year.

WHEREAS, events such as March Madness, The Masters, and the Super Bowl transcend the normal scope of athletic competition to become cultural icons, and the Interns versus Members basketball game is certainly one such event; and

WHEREAS, this legislative version of March Madness has been played for many years and has gained worldwide recognition as a captivating sporting competition; and

WHEREAS, on March 25, 2025, history was made once again as the sprightly Interns faced the decrepit Members to hoop it up at Allen Arena on the campus of Lipscomb University; and

WHEREAS, the Intern ballers crushed the Member benchers by a score of 69-42 to win the heated rivalry game in style and humble their legislative bosses for the second year in a row; and

WHEREAS, the world champion Intern team featured an outstanding array of roundball talent, including Malik Abdullah, an intern for Representative Parkinson and a student at Tennessee State University; Nehemiah DeMar, an intern for Representative Love and a student at Tennessee State University; Joseph DiMaggio, an intern for Lieutenant Governor McNally and a student at Belmont University; Maverick Emberton, an intern for Chairman Terry and a student at Tennessee Technological University; Jackson Fox, an intern for Leader Johnson and a student at Lipscomb University; John Jeffers, an intern for Chairlady Moody and a student at Tennessee Technological University; Tyler Martin, an intern for Senator Reeves and a student at Middle Tennessee State University; Austin Parker, an intern for Senator Haile and a student at Lipscomb University; Serena Prince, an intern for Senator Bowling and a student at Lipscomb

University; Darryan Walker, an intern for Senator Hatcher and a student at Tennessee State University; Omar Watkins, an intern for Chairlady Dawn White and a student at Tennessee Technological University; and Benjamin Schmisser, an intern for Speaker Sexton and a student at Belmont University, who scored 24 points and was named the game's Most Valuable Player; and

WHEREAS, Jadyn Cochrane, an intern for Representative Miller and a student at Tennessee State University, provided expert leadership as the Intern team's Head Coach, while Piper Harris, an intern for Chairman Bulso and a student at Freed-Hardeman University, urged the Interns on to victory as their Spirit Coach; and

WHEREAS, Shirley Frierson, Director of the Tennessee Legislative Internship Program (TLIP), and J.R. Russell, Administrator of TLIP, watched in awe as their young charges dismantled the ancient Members piece by piece; and

WHEREAS, the 2025 Interns versus Members basketball game added another chapter to the ongoing saga of this fierce rivalry, one that is equivalent to the feud between the Hatfields and McCoys, and we find it appropriate to record for posterity the gruesome details of the Interns' rout of the Members; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we honor the coaches and members of the Intern basketball team for defeating the Member team for the second straight year, recognize the incredible talent of the Intern hoopsters, and wish them all the best in their future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
