

SENATE BILL 1942

By Hensley

AN ACT to amend Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 15,
Chapter 2, relative to days of special observance.

WHEREAS, Tennessee observes Mothers' Day on the second Sunday in May; and

WHEREAS, Tennessee does not yet set aside a day to observe as Fathers' Day; and

WHEREAS, Tennessee's fathers are the leaders of our families and the protectors of our security and safety; and

WHEREAS, the love and devotion of Tennessee's fathers inspire and mold the next generation of families; and

WHEREAS, fathers rise early, work late, make sacrifices, and remain steadfast in their love and commitment to their families and thereby help shape the character and future of our state through their example; and

WHEREAS, fathers instill strength, integrity, and perseverance in their children, lead through action, speak with purpose, and impart wisdom honed by experience; and

WHEREAS, fathers leave a lasting influence on their children that reaches far beyond the walls of their homes; and

WHEREAS, the presence of a father in the home also serves to plant the seeds of virtue and instill American values in their children, including values like hard work, love of country, and the importance of living with conviction; and

WHEREAS, through their leadership, selflessness, and inspiration, fathers are integral to the nuclear family; and

WHEREAS, throughout the United States, Fathers' Day is celebrated on the third Sunday in June; and

WHEREAS, Tennessee wishes to celebrate the role of the father in the family on the same day; now, therefore,

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 15, Chapter 2, is amended by adding the following as a new section:

The third Sunday in June of each year is observed as "Fathers' Day," to honor the noble and indispensable role that fathers play in Tennessee families.

SECTION 2. This act takes effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.
