AMEND Senate Bill No. 2248*

House Bill No. 2560

by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 4-3-101, is amended by adding the following as a new subdivision:

() Department of emergency management;

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 4-3-111, is amended by adding the following as a new subdivision:

() Commissioner of emergency management;

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 4-3-1017(a)(1), is amended by deleting "emergency management agency" and substituting "department of emergency management".

SECTION 4. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 4, Chapter 3, is amended by adding the following as a new part:

Part 29. Department of Emergency Management.

4-3-2901. Creation.

There is created the department of emergency management.

4-3-2902. Commissioner.

The department of emergency management is under the charge and general supervision of the commissioner of emergency management.

4-3-2903. Powers and duties.

The commissioner of emergency management is vested with such powers and required to perform such duties as are set forth in title 58, chapter 2, and is charged with the administration of such laws as the general assembly from time to time may enact.

4-3-2904. Continuing effect of contracts and leases.

(a) Contracts or leases entered into prior to the effective date of this act, with respect to any program or function transferred to the department of emergency management with any entity, corporation, agency, enterprise, or person, continue in full force and effect as to all essential provisions in accordance with the terms and conditions of the contracts in existence on the effective date of this act, to the same extent as if such contracts had originally been entered into by and between such entity, corporation, agency, enterprise, or person and the department of emergency management, unless and until such contracts or leases are amended or modified by the parties thereto or until the expiration of such contract.

(b) This part must not be implemented in any manner that violates the prohibition against impairment of contract obligations as contained in the Constitution of Tennessee, Article I, § 20.

4-3-2905. Continuing effect of current rules, orders, decisions, and policies.

All current rules, orders, decisions, and policies issued or promulgated by the Tennessee emergency management agency under title 58, chapter 2, remain in full force and effect and must be administered and enforced by the department of emergency management. To this end, the department of emergency management, through its commissioner, may, consistent with the statutes and rules pertaining to the programs and functions transferred by this section, modify or rescind orders, rules, decisions, or policies so issued and to adopt, issue, or promulgate new orders, rules, decisions, or policies as may be necessary for the administration of the programs or functions transferred by this section.

SECTION 5. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 4-29-250(a), is amended by deleting subdivision (32) and by adding the following as a new subdivision:

() Department of emergency management, created by § 4-3-2901;

SECTION 6. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 9-4-215(a), is amended by deleting "Tennessee emergency management agency" wherever it appears and substituting "department of emergency management".

SECTION 7. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 9-4-216, is amended by deleting "Tennessee emergency management agency" wherever it appears in subsections (a), (d), and (e) and substituting "department of emergency management".

SECTION 8. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 16-3-818(a)(18), is amended by deleting the subdivision and substituting:

(18) Commissioner of emergency management or a designee; and

SECTION 9. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 39-13-902, is amended by deleting "Tennessee emergency management agency" wherever it appears in subdivision (a)(22) and subsection (c) and substituting "department of emergency management" and by deleting the language "created in § 58-2-104" in subdivision (a)(22) and substituting "created in § 4-3-2901".

SECTION 10. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 39-17-1315(a)(1)(A)(ii), is amended by deleting the subdivision and substituting:

(ii) Any commissioner or full-time employee of the department of emergency management in the performance of the commissioner's or employee's duty;

SECTION 11. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-8-199(d)(4), is amended by deleting "agency".

SECTION 12. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 58-1-114, is amended by deleting "and the emergency management agency,".

SECTION 13. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 58-2-101, is amended by deleting subdivision (1), by deleting "TEMA" in subdivision (9) and substituting "the department", by deleting "the agency" in subdivision (11) and substituting "the department", and by adding the following as new subdivisions:

() "Commissioner" means the commissioner of emergency management;

() "Department" means the department of emergency management;

SECTION 14. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 58-2-103(a)(1), is amended by deleting the subdivision and substituting:

(1) Create a state emergency management department, to be known as the department of emergency management, to authorize the creation of local organizations for emergency management in the political subdivisions of the state, and to authorize cooperation with the federal government and the governments of other states;

SECTION 15. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 58-2-103(a)(2), is amended by deleting "TEMA" and substituting "the department".

SECTION 16. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 58-2-104, is amended by deleting the section and substituting:

(a) The department shall authorize the creation of local organizations for emergency management in the political subdivisions of this state, and authorize cooperation with the federal government and the governments of other states.

(b) The commissioner, subject to the direction and control of the governor, is the executive head of the department and is responsible to the governor for carrying out the program for the department for this state. The commissioner shall coordinate the activities of all organizations for the department within this state and shall maintain liaison with and cooperate with emergency management agencies and organizations of other states and of the federal government. The department of the military is a resource for this state as with all other departments and agencies; further, the commissioner shall make recommendations to the governor for the use of the national guard and other state resources as disaster conditions mandate, including, but not limited to, the assistance of local and private agencies. The commissioner shall coordinate with the governor's office on the activation or the potential activation of any mutual aid agreement or compact.

(c) The commissioner may employ such area directors and professional, technical, clerical, and other personnel, and the commissioner shall fix their compensation and may make expenditures from available funds appropriated for the department or from funds made available to the commissioner for purposes of emergency management, as may be necessary to carry out this chapter. The commissioner must be provided with necessary and appropriate office space, furniture, supplies, printing, and equipment, including, but not limited to, radio, radiological, and any and all other proper equipment necessary to carry out the emergency management program for this state. The necessary mileage, office expenses, salaries of personnel, postage, telephone, and expressage must be chargeable to any funds available for emergency management.

SECTION 17. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 58-2-106, is amended by:

(1) Deleting "director of the agency" in subsection (a) and substituting "commissioner";
