

SENATE RESOLUTION 291

By Oliver

A RESOLUTION to honor keynote speaker Maxine Waters and the Nashville Branch of the NAACP during the 2026 Freedom Fund Banquet.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that we should salute those venerable citizens and stalwart organizations who, through their extraordinary efforts, have distinguished themselves as true leaders most worthy of our respect and approbation; and

WHEREAS, one such noteworthy individual is United States Congresswoman Maxine Waters, who will be the keynote speaker at the 2026 Freedom Fund Banquet hosted by the Nashville Branch of the NAACP; and

WHEREAS, the Freedom Fund Banquet will commemorate 106 years of service, advocacy, and progress in the fight for civil rights and equity, bringing together community leaders, advocates, partners, and supporters for an evening centered on reflection, recognition, and renewed commitment to justice; and

WHEREAS, proceeds from the Freedom Fund Banquet will directly support the NAACP Nashville Branch's programs and initiatives focused on advocacy, education, economic empowerment, and civic engagement throughout Middle Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, as the event's keynote speaker, United States Representative (D-CA) Maxine Waters will share insight, experience, and perspective shaped by decades of public service and leadership; and

WHEREAS, Congresswoman Waters is a true inspiration, and her speech will certainly be a highlight of the 2026 Freedom Fund Banquet; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we honor and commend

Congresswoman Maxine Waters and the Nashville Branch of the NAACP, extending our best wishes for great success during the 2026 Freedom Fund Banquet.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
