

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 39

By Love

A RESOLUTION to honor the memory of Donald Majors, Jr., of Nashville.

WHEREAS, we were greatly saddened to learn of the passing of Donald Majors, Jr., of Nashville; and

WHEREAS, Don Majors was an exemplary public servant and consummate professional who worked assiduously to improve the quality of life for his fellow citizens in numerous capacities; and

WHEREAS, the son of Donald Majors, Sr., and Helen Majors, Don Majors was born and raised in Nashville, where he resided his entire life; and

WHEREAS, after marrying his devoted wife, Vallie Majors, he moved to Parkwood, where he became a superb baseball coach for the Parkwood Dixie Youth Baseball program, eventually serving as the director of the program for twelve years; and

WHEREAS, his time with the Parkwood Dixie Youth Baseball program, which included rescuing the Parkwood ballfield altogether, broke the color barrier in the Dixie League and within the Sertoma Club; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Majors joined the Metropolitan Council as a representative for the Maplewood region and helped to break the color barrier for minority contracting, taking on powerful players in Nashville to establish equity; and

WHEREAS, skilled in diplomacy and abundant in charisma, Mr. Majors deftly utilized his verbal prowess to work for the common good in Nashville politics; and

WHEREAS, he also spent twelve years as a congressional aide, advisor, constituent services specialist, and field representative for former U.S. Representative Jim Cooper, who fondly remembers Mr. Majors and his team working tirelessly in the Nashville Downtown Public Library to remedy the various ills of local citizens; and

WHEREAS, when he was not giving of himself for the concerns of his constituency, Mr. Majors enjoyed playing, congregating around, or even simply thinking about golf, which he played with the Nashville Duffers; and

WHEREAS, he was also deeply devoted to his family and always endeavored to remain true to family values of the highest order; and

WHEREAS, Donald Majors, Jr., will be sadly mourned yet fondly remembered by his wife, Vallie Majors; his children, Sharon Barksdale and Brandon Majors; his grandchildren, Franshaska Barksdale, Aubrei Barksdale, and Vallie Lashae Majors; his siblings, Debra (Steve) Bell, Janice Majors, and Jerry Majors; and many other relatives and friends; and

WHEREAS, in addition to his father and mother, he was preceded in death by his brother, Thomas Oakley Majors; and

WHEREAS, Don Majors leaves behind an indelible legacy of integrity and probity in public life, compassion and loyalty in private life, and diligence and dedication in all his chosen endeavors; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that we should remember the bountiful life of this exceptional gentleman and human being; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we honor the memory of Donald Majors, Jr., reflecting fondly upon his impeccable character and his stalwart commitment to living the examined life with courage and conviction.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we express our sympathy and offer our condolences to the family of Mr. Majors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
