

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 490

By Vital

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend Terran Jerrell "T-RAN" Gilbert.

WHEREAS, it is most fitting that we acknowledge and applaud those business and cultural leaders who are wholly devoted to enhancing the quality of life for their fellow citizens and improving and enriching the place they all call home; and

WHEREAS, one such noteworthy individual is Terran Jerrell Gilbert, known professionally as T-RAN, who has distinguished himself as a citizen of the greatest dedication, ability, and integrity and has served as a history-maker who epitomizes the spirit and commitment that are characteristic of a true Tennessee Ambassador; and

WHEREAS, T-RAN is a singer, songwriter, record producer, musician, music video director, actor, motivational speaker, entrepreneur, and philanthropist, as well as the founder of the entertainment company 22Visionz; T-Ran was born on December 7, 1984, in Chattanooga to former Chattanooga City Councilman Russell J. Gilbert, Sr., and community leader and educator Terri A. Gilbert; and

WHEREAS, as a musical artist, T-RAN has toured in ten countries and three continents; he has shared the stage with the likes of Kirk Franklin, Lyfe Jennings, Shania Twain, Monica, and Kool & the Gang, and he was featured on TBN with rapper/host T-Bone as his song charted in the TX10 Countdown. His albums, Live and Not Die and The Imprint, have received airplay worldwide; and

WHEREAS, as an actor, he has appeared in the films Straight into Darkness and Unconditional, as well as in episodes of Nashville, and in 2012, he took his music and motivational speaking on the Season of Non-Violence Tour, with Dr. Arun Gandhi, grandson of Mahatma Gandhi; and

WHEREAS, T-RAN's philanthropic endeavors have included many benefit concerts over the years, such as his 2012 concert with gospel artist Gordon Mote and the celebrity benefit concert in Los Angeles for Homeboys Industries, which benefited programs for gang-involved and previously incarcerated men and women; and

WHEREAS, in 2014, T-RAN sponsored a benefit concert for the Nashville-based nonprofit Nashville Peacemakers, an organization fighting against human trafficking, youth violence, and illiteracy; he also performed at the IndieCares Concert Series sponsored by Nashville Inner City Ministries, benefiting needy families, and in 2016, he teamed up with Unchained Movement and Nashville Peacemakers in promoting human trafficking awareness with the use of the video for his song "Nowhere"; and

WHEREAS, the founder of the entertainment company 22Visionz, he is a member of various key music organizations, actively contributing to the recognition and celebration of musical excellence; he is an esteemed voting member of the Academy of Country Music, Gospel Music Association, Country Music Association, and Recording Academy; and

WHEREAS, his impactful work has garnered recognition in People Magazine for his song and music video "Other Side," performed by Taylor Sanders, which he wrote, produced, and directed; T-RAN's songs "Overcomer" and "Save Me" have also positively impacted others in the music industry, such as Grammy-award winning platinum artist NE-YO; and

WHEREAS, as a pastor and spiritual counselor through his nonprofit organization Live And Not Die, Inc., T-RAN provides spiritual support to prominent figures in the music industry and has been a source of inspiration and guidance; he has also profoundly strengthened the faith of countless community members, standing as a beacon of light and hope, and praying for everyone he encounters; and

WHEREAS, he provides solace and comfort by singing at funeral services, offering hope to grieving families and friends, including community members he has never met; he has organized community outreach events, delivering essential items to the homeless and families in need, and has, through his music and motivational speaking, provided spiritual support to college students at various universities, colleges, and HBCUs; and

WHEREAS, Terran "T-RAN" Gilbert graduated from Lee University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Telecommunications in 2007, and in 2008, he launched 22Visionz, LLC, a production, management, and entertainment company specializing in video production, marketing, music production, record-label services, graphic and logo design, motion graphics, and live events; and

WHEREAS, T-RAN was recently honored for his video production work, claiming Music Video of the Year (Female) at the 2024 Josie Music Awards for Taylor Sanders's "Firecracker" video, which he directed; and

WHEREAS, he has also been recognized by his hometown of Chattanooga with a key to the city, and in 2021, he was honored by the Chattanooga City Council for being a "Heroic and Selfless" individual in the community; and

WHEREAS, he is wholly devoted to his family, including his wife, Alexis Rosez Gilbert, and their children, Amoré Rose Gilbert and Ayla Rain Gilbert; and

WHEREAS, T-RAN is an ambassador of the music industry and entertainment for the State of Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, we find it appropriate to acknowledge and applaud T-RAN for his dedication to the entertainment industry and the State of Tennessee; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we commend Terran Jerrell "T-RAN" Gilbert for his innumerable contributions to the entertainment industry and the citizens of this State and extend to him our best wishes for continued success in all his future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
