A RESOLUTION to commend Tennessee credit unions for their support of the Tennessee Financial Literacy Commission.

WHEREAS, it is our privilege to recognize those institutions whose altruistic vision guides them to support initiatives that greatly benefit the citizens of this State; and

WHEREAS, Tennessee credit unions have made a three-year financial commitment, totaling $1.8 million, in support of the Tennessee Financial Literacy Commission (TNFLC), which was created by the General Assembly in 2010; and

WHEREAS, over the last century, credit unions in Tennessee have built a legacy of serving individuals and helping build Tennessee communities, assisting credit union members with their needs, and guiding them through responsible stewardship of their money; and

WHEREAS, the TNFLC shares the same goals, and with this partnership with Tennessee credit unions, the TNFLC will be able to provide additional teacher training and certification, classroom materials, interactive curricula, and community scholarships, expanding upon the success it has achieved to date, which includes programs such as Money Week; and

WHEREAS, the partnership between the TNFLC and Tennessee credit unions is one that will bring increased awareness of the importance of personal finance to citizens throughout the State, enabling them to make informed money decisions that will shore up their lives and their futures; and
