

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 1230

By Glynn

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend Norman G. "Greg" Lane for his distinguished military service.

WHEREAS, our nation was conceived by individuals who were willing to sacrifice their personal safety and concerns to ensure our individual and collective freedom, and the Volunteer State is especially proud to be the home of so many valiant men and women who have performed above and beyond the call of duty; and

WHEREAS, while the heroic deeds of Tennesseans have been extolled throughout the history of our State and nation, the distinguished military service of every proud Tennessean should be illuminated, shared, and properly honored; and

WHEREAS, one such individual is Norman G. "Greg" Lane, a gallant veteran of the United States Army, who served with distinction over the course of a long and honorable military career; and

WHEREAS, born in Chattanooga in September 1959, Greg Lane matriculated to The Citadel in August 1977, from which he graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in History and was commissioned in the United States Army as an active-duty infantry officer in May 1981; and

WHEREAS, he served on active duty from 1981 through 1993, with assignments at Fort Benning, Georgia; Fort Campbell, Kentucky; Camp Page, South Korea; Fort Polk, Louisiana; and Austin Peay State University Army ROTC; and

WHEREAS, his active duty positions included rifle platoon leader, company executive officer, company commander on two occasions, garrison S2/S3, battalion and brigade assistant adjutant, brigade plans officer, and Army ROTC instructor; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Lane continued to serve his nation with distinction in the United States Army Reserve from August 1993 to September 2005, where his roles included Army ROTC instructor, Military History Institute operations officer, and Intermediate Level Education instructor in the 100th Division (Leader Development); and

WHEREAS, during this period of continued service, he furthered his education, earning a Master of Arts degree in Education from Austin Peay State University (APSU) in August 1995; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Lane's commitment to developing future officers is particularly noteworthy through his long and distinguished service with the United States Army Cadet Command and the APSU ROTC program, where he served as an assistant professor of military science, instructor at multiple cadet levels, contractor instructor, and cadre member in roles including S3 and executive officer; and

WHEREAS, his contributions extended to twelve Army ROTC Advanced Camps between 2000 and 2013, where he served first as a platoon TAC Officer and later as Camp Liaison Officer chief, helping shape and evaluate the next generation of Army leaders; and

WHEREAS, since 2014, Greg Lane has served as Cadet Success Coordinator at APSU, providing critical administrative leadership, coordinating departmental operations, leading annual staff rides, teaching military history, and serving as the primary liaison between the university and the Army ROTC department; and

WHEREAS, during his tenure at APSU, Mr. Lane has played a vital role in the commissioning of 627 cadets into the active Army, Army Reserve, and Army National Guard, thereby leaving a lasting legacy on the strength and readiness of our nation's armed forces; and

WHEREAS, in addition to his military and instructional service, he has contributed to academic and leadership development programs, including teaching in APSU's President's Emerging Leaders Program and serving on the APSU Faculty Senate, while also publishing numerous professional articles in respected military journals, including SOLDIERS, ARMOR,

ENGINEER, MILITARY INTELLIGENCE, TRANSPORTATION, and the Association of the United States Army's ARMY magazine; and

WHEREAS, no stranger to accolades, Greg Lane has been recognized with induction into the United States Army ROTC Hall of Fame in 2019, receipt of the Austin Peay State University Staff Service Award for the 2018–2019 academic year, and the Ohio Valley Conference Thurston Banks Award in 2021 for his outstanding contributions to student athletes who were also Army ROTC cadets; and

WHEREAS, his many professional achievements aside, Mr. Lane is most grateful for the love and support he shares with his wife, Lucy Lane; and

WHEREAS, throughout his military career, Greg Lane has served the United States with honor, integrity, and distinction, and it is wholly fitting that he be recognized; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we honor and commend Norman G. "Greg" Lane for his distinguished military service, express our sincere gratitude for his many years of dedication to the defense of our nation, and extend to him our best wishes for every future happiness and success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
