

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 1532

By Stinnett

A RESOLUTION to honor the memory of Charles Dwight Bailey of East Tennessee.

WHEREAS, the members of this General Assembly were greatly saddened to learn of the passing of Charles Dwight Bailey; and

WHEREAS, a man of faith and esteemed community leader, Charles Bailey was a consummate gentleman who worked assiduously to improve the quality of life for his fellow citizens in numerous capacities; and

WHEREAS, born in Maryville on February 10, 1947, to Ralph and Johnnie Mae Bailey, Mr. Bailey was a graduate of Friendsville High School and Carson-Newman University, from which he earned his degree to teach in the public school system; he later earned his master's degree from the University of Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, Charles Bailey enjoyed a long career in education at Greenback High School, where he served as a coach, teacher, athletics director, vice principal, and principal during his tenure; he was an essential and beloved fixture of the school, and he treasured the community he found there; and

WHEREAS, he was called into a preaching ministry and was voted to be the bi-vocational pastor of Oak View Baptist Church in 1977, and shortly thereafter, he was called to be the full-time pastor; during that time, he felt like an advanced degree was necessary, so he pursued and earned his doctorate in Biblical Studies while he was at Oak View; and

WHEREAS, in 1989, Mr. Bailey left Oak View to become the pastor of Laurel Bank Baptist Church, where he enjoyed a long, fruitful ministry that spanned twenty-six years until his "first" retirement; because preaching the gospel and caring for his congregants were such an important part of his life, he came out of retirement to pastor the loving congregation of Central Baptist Church of Alcoa; and

WHEREAS, Charles Bailey was an honest, funny, creative, loving, genuine man who followed Christ and served his Lord his entire life; he was proud of his association with the Tennessee Baptist Convention, his participation in the Chilhowee Baptist Association, and his role as the home plate umpire in the championship game of the very first Smoky Mountain Classic softball tournament; and

WHEREAS, he was also deeply devoted to his family and always endeavored to remain true to family values of the highest order; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Bailey is survived by his wife of fifty years, JoAnn Cargile Bailey; his brother, Ronda (Lou) Bailey; his sons, Lee (JoAnne Everett) Bailey and Jackson (Kimberly Whitman) Bailey; and his six grandchildren, Maxwell Bailey, Levi Bailey, Ella Bailey, Emma Bailey, Dean Bailey, and Audrey Bailey; and

WHEREAS, in addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his first wife, Jane Davenport Bailey, as well as his brother, Keith Bailey; and

WHEREAS, Charles Bailey leaves behind an indelible legacy of integrity and probity in public life, compassion and loyalty in private life, and diligence and dedication in all his chosen endeavors; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should pause to remember the bountiful life of this exceptional public servant and human being; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we honor the memory of Charles Dwight Bailey, reflecting fondly upon his impeccable character and his stalwart commitment to living the examined life with courage and conviction.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we express our sympathy and offer our condolences to the family of Mr. Bailey.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
