

HOUSE RESOLUTION 197

By Pearson

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend Karmen Winters for her upcoming college graduation.

WHEREAS, it is both fitting and proper that we recognize the achievements and aspirations of young leaders whose dedication to service, education, and community uplift and embody the very best of Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, Karmen Winters, a proud resident of Memphis, has demonstrated a steadfast commitment to personal growth, academic achievement, and community engagement; and

WHEREAS, a graduate of the City University School of Liberal Arts, where she earned her high school diploma with a strong academic record, Ms. Winters has continued her educational journey through her studies at Austin Peay State University and LeMoyne-Owen College, from which she will graduate on Saturday, May 9, 2026, with a Bachelor of Science degree in Sociology; and

WHEREAS, guided by a passion for service, Ms. Winters aspires to become a social worker, seeking to uplift individuals and families through compassion, advocacy, and dedicated care; and

WHEREAS, she has distinguished herself through her strong character and skillset, including leadership, critical thinking, communication, and active listening—qualities that are essential to building stronger communities; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Winters has contributed meaningfully to the workforce through various roles, including internships with J. Adams Financial Services and the Shelby County Assessor of Property, participation in the Memphis Ambassador Program, and service in the hospitality industry; and

WHEREAS, her commitment to service extends deeply into the community, as evidenced by her volunteer work with Le Bonheur Children's Hospital, the Memphis Food Bank, and Peabody Elementary School, and her support of breast cancer awareness initiatives; and

WHEREAS, she has been actively engaged in student and civic life through organizations such as the Teenage Improvement Club, Future Business Leaders of America, cheerleading, and, most recently, as a Social Media Senator in the Student Government Association; and

WHEREAS, her excellence has been recognized through numerous honors, including being named Student of the Year, placing in the NAACP Teenager of the Year competition, and earning distinction as a Kappa Debutante; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Winters represents the promise of a new generation—grounded in service, driven by purpose, and committed to building a more just and compassionate society; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we honor and commend Karmen Winters for her dedication to education, her service to the Memphis community, and her aspiration to improve the lives of others through social work and extend to her our best wishes for continued success and impact in all her future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
