

SENATE BILL 794

By Bailey

AN ACT to amend Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 4,
Chapter 1, Part 3, relative to bands.

WHEREAS, from Bristol, the birthplace of country music, to Memphis, the blues capital of the world, musicians across Tennessee continue to inspire and influence through their astounding artistry; and

WHEREAS, from time to time, the exceptional ability, dedication, and accomplishments, both musical and philanthropic, of standout Tennessee musicians warrant a place of honor in the annals of State history; and

WHEREAS, based in the Crossville area, Southern Stars Symphonic Brass is a collective of musicians from Clarksville, Nashville, Murfreesboro, Tullahoma, Cookeville, Crossville, Chattanooga, and Knoxville and includes university professors, secondary-level music educators, and others who are excellent musicians in their own right; and

WHEREAS, in addition to a three-concert season at Stone Memorial High School's auditorium, this talented group has given concerts at the Performing Arts Center in Maryville, Maryville College, the University of the Cumberlands, and various locations in Knoxville, Cookeville, and Murfreesboro; and

WHEREAS, Southern Stars Symphonic Brass has performed at the Great American Brass Band Festival on multiple occasions, representing Tennessee at this prestigious, long-running event that draws musical ensembles from around the country and across the globe; and

WHEREAS, for nearly two decades, Southern Stars Symphonic Brass has served as an exemplar of musical talent and generosity of spirit, and it is most worthy of special recognition; now, therefore,

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 4, Chapter 1, Part 3, is amended by adding the following as a new section:

The Southern Stars Symphonic Brass is hereby designated as the official brass band of the state of Tennessee.

SECTION 2. This act takes effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.
