

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 832

By Johnson

A RESOLUTION to recognize Randy Elliott on the occasion of his retirement.

WHEREAS, it is appropriate that the members of this General Assembly should pause to honor those citizens who have performed with uncommon devotion and enthusiasm throughout their years of public service; and

WHEREAS, Randy Elliott is one such estimable person, who, after ten years of devoted service to BrightStone, will take his much-deserved retirement; and

WHEREAS, in 2016, Mr. Elliott joined the team at BrightStone and served as Director of Advancement, in which role he brought awareness to the organization's mission of loving and serving others through faith and partnership and encouraged others to walk alongside BrightStone in building innovative programs for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities; and

WHEREAS, Randy Elliott most recently served BrightStone as Chief of Staff, supporting organizational leadership, governance, and strategic initiatives and remaining focused on strengthening funding, community support, and long-range planning to ensure the organization can faithfully serve families now and for generations to come; and

WHEREAS, during his distinguished tenure, Mr. Elliott launched the Homecoming Capital Campaign to support future residential expansion and growth; additionally, he supported the Board of Directors in advancing state legislation to designate BrightStone as the state's pilot residential program, affirming the nonprofit's innovative campus model and establishing a framework for residential services unique to Middle Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, through Mr. Elliott's leadership of the Land of Dreams Capital Campaign, the Stinnett Center for Learning, Art, and Enterprise, and the first two residential homes on the organization's current campus were brought to life; and

WHEREAS, prior to his work at BrightStone, Mr. Elliott held other key leadership roles, including Director of Advancement at New Hope Academy; Director of Development at Guideposts Foundation; President of Texas State Credit Company; and Vice President of Thomas Nelson Publishers, in which role he excelled for seventeen years; and

WHEREAS, a leader in his community, Mr. Elliott served the Forrest Crossing Community Homeowners Association Board as treasurer for four years and the Planned Giving Council of Middle Tennessee Board as a member; he currently serves as treasurer and member of the Parish Council at his church; and

WHEREAS, Randy Elliott earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Journalism from the University of Memphis; and

WHEREAS, his many professional accomplishments aside, Mr. Elliott is most grateful for the love and support he shares with his wife, Ann; he is the proud father of four children and grandfather of seven grandchildren; and

WHEREAS, throughout his exemplary tenure at BrightStone, Randy Elliott has demonstrated the utmost professionalism, ability, and integrity, winning the unbridled respect and admiration of his colleagues and community alike; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we extend to Randy Elliott our heartfelt wishes for a happy and fulfilling retirement and every continued success in his future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
