

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 1100

By Roberts

A RESOLUTION to honor and celebrate the 100th anniversary of J. I. Baldwin and Son Barbecue in Springfield.

WHEREAS, the members of this General Assembly are pleased to honor those outstanding restaurants that have earned the loyalty and accolades of Tennesseans through their mouth-watering cuisine; and

WHEREAS, Middle Tennessee is, without a doubt, home to some of the best barbeque restaurants in the world, and J. I. Baldwin and Son Barbecue in Springfield is certainly one of them; and

WHEREAS, founded in 1926, J. I. Baldwin and Son Barbecue has literally served millions of pounds of barbeque to hungry, but ultimately satisfied, customers during the past 100 years; and

WHEREAS, J. I. Baldwin and Son Barbecue is renowned among its customers for serving the world's best barbecue while providing excellent customer service; and

WHEREAS, it is only appropriate that we should pay tribute to J. I. Baldwin and Son Barbecue's longstanding commitment to great food and great service as its owners and employees usher the restaurant into its second century of operation; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we honor and celebrate the 100th anniversary of J. I. Baldwin and Son Barbecue in Springfield and extend to its owners and employees our best wishes for much-continued success in serving delicious barbeque to the people during the next 100 years.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
