

SENATE RESOLUTION 139

By Lamar

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend the Elite Performance Foundation and its CEO, Randy Dixon, on the organization's fifth anniversary.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this legislative body should recognize those exemplary organizations that, through their unwavering commitment to excellence and charity, are a credit to this State; and

WHEREAS, one such estimable entity is the Elite Performance Foundation, which is celebrating its fifth anniversary in 2025; and

WHEREAS, established by its CEO, Randy Dixon, and predicated on his metamorphic journey through the art of boxing, the Elite Performance Foundation is a nonprofit organization dedicated to teaching underprivileged youth in Memphis about the transformative power of boxing, as well as fostering mental health awareness, self-discipline, and overall fitness; and

WHEREAS, growing up surrounded by the adverse effects of gun violence and gang conflict in his community, Mr. Dixon gained a positive outlet for negativity by boxing with his uncle; endowed with an entrepreneurial spirit and a drive for community improvement, Mr. Dixon sought to replicate his own positive development through sport by creating a safe place for other disadvantaged youth to find freedom in the ring; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Dixon has always emphasized the importance of mentorship and personal development in his organization, seeking out coaches who have a knack for both pugilism and empathy, and by partnering with local businesses, schools, and community centers, the Elite Performance Foundation has quickly made in-roads of positive change in Memphis through its positive, inspirational atmosphere and encouraging staff; and

WHEREAS, the Elite Performance Foundation has just begun its laudable mission of transforming Memphis, one bout at a time, and it is most appropriate that this vivifying business be recognized; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we honor and commend Randy Dixon and the staff of the Elite Performance Foundation on the occasion of the organization's fifth anniversary and extend to them our best wishes for every future success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
