AMEND Senate Bill No. 1588

House Bill No. 1504*

by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 4, Chapter 8, is amended by adding the following as a new part:

4-8-501.

There is designated a capitol hill protection zone around the state capitol grounds that includes the state capitol, capitol annexes, World War II Memorial Building that formerly housed the state library and archives, Supreme Court Building, William R. Snodgrass Tennessee Tower, War Memorial Building, Legislative Plaza, James K. Polk State Office Building, Rachel Jackson Building, Andrew Jackson Building, John Sevier State Office Building, Cordell Hull Building, and the grounds, roads, and sidewalks along either side of the roads immediately surrounding such buildings.

(a) Law enforcement officers assigned to the capitol hill protection zone by the commissioner of safety have concurrent law enforcement authority with local law enforcement agencies, including the power to arrest, carry a firearm, and investigate crime.

(b) The assigned law enforcement officers must be certified by the peace officers standards and training commission (POST). Any law enforcement officer assigned to the capitol hill protection zone must have completed, in addition to the training required for POST-certification, training specifically on the laws regulating protesting on state property and best practices for dealing with large public gatherings and the protection of government officials.

(c) The commissioner of safety may also assign state facility protection officers, as appointed and commissioned through § 4-3-2019, to the capitol hill protection zone. Any state facility protection officer assigned to the capitol hill protection zone must have completed, in addition to the training requirements in § 4-3-2019, training specifically on the laws regulating protesting on state property and best practices for dealing with large public gatherings and the protection of government officials.

SECTION 2. This act takes effect January 1, 2027, the public welfare requiring it.
