

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 739

By Clemmons

A RESOLUTION to commemorate International Holocaust Remembrance Day, January 27, 2026.

WHEREAS, each year, January 27th is observed as International Holocaust Remembrance Day to commemorate the victims of the Holocaust and to ensure that future generations understand the importance of preventing hatred, prejudice, and discrimination; and

WHEREAS, January 27, 2026, marks the eighty-first anniversary of the liberation of the Auschwitz concentration camp, where more than 1.1 million men, women, and children were brutally murdered by the Nazi regime during the Holocaust; and

WHEREAS, the Holocaust, also known as the Shoah, was the systematic state-sponsored persecution and murder of approximately six million Jews by Nazi Germany and its collaborators during World War II; millions of others, including Roma, Poles, disabled individuals, Soviet prisoners of war, political dissidents, and others, were also targeted; and

WHEREAS, the memory of the Holocaust serves as a stark reminder of the devastating consequences of intolerance, bigotry, and hatred and underscores the importance of promoting respect for human rights, equality, and the dignity of all people; and

WHEREAS, antisemitism, including harassment on the basis of actual or perceived Jewish origin, ancestry, ethnicity, identity, affiliation, or faith, remains a disturbingly persistent, pervasive, and growing problem; and

WHEREAS, there has recently been a sharp rise in antisemitism and extremism across the country and around the world; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of Tennessee are encouraged to reflect on the lessons of the Holocaust and continue to work together to build a future that values the humanity of each individual, free of antisemitism, hatred, and bigotry; and

WHEREAS, survivors of the Holocaust, their families, and their communities, as well as the organizations dedicated to preserving Holocaust history, serve as living testaments to the resilience of the human spirit and the importance of ensuring that such atrocities are never repeated; and

WHEREAS, International Holocaust Remembrance Day encourages the education of future generations about the history and impact of the Holocaust and the importance of combating antisemitism, intolerance, and all forms of hate to ensure that past atrocities are never repeated; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we join with citizens across the State in commemorating International Holocaust Remembrance Day in Tennessee on January 27, 2026.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
