

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 829

By Walley

A RESOLUTION to honor the memory of Wayne Alexander Maxedon of Selmer.

WHEREAS, the members of this General Assembly were greatly saddened to learn of the passing of Wayne Alexander Maxedon of Selmer; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Maxedon was an exemplary public servant and consummate professional who worked assiduously to improve the quality of life for his fellow citizens in numerous capacities; and

WHEREAS, Wayne Maxedon was born on July 23, 1948, in Oakland, California, to Pitts Jones Maxedon and Dorothy Marie Counce Maxedon; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Maxedon invested his heart in the next generation as the longtime basketball coach at Selmer Middle School; beyond teaching the game, he taught discipline, respect, resilience, and confidence; and

WHEREAS, Wayne Maxedon also spent many seasons working at DDY camp for children, where he helped create lasting memories; and

WHEREAS, a devoted Tennessee Volunteers fan, Mr. Maxedon rarely missed a football or basketball game; he also enjoyed golfing and talking sports with his friends, always ready to relive a great play or memorable season; and

WHEREAS, Wayne Maxedon was a proud member of the PIKE fraternity at the University of Tennessee at Martin, where he formed lifelong friendships; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Maxedon never met a stranger, and his humor and warmth filled every room he entered; known as a "cut-up," he was quick with a joke and had a gift for making others smile; and

WHEREAS, above all else, Mr. Maxedon treasured the love of his family; his daughters were his greatest pride, and his grandsons were the light of his life. He loved nothing more than spending time with his grandsons, whether cheering them on from the sidelines or sitting and sharing stories with them; and

WHEREAS, Wanye Maxedon will be sadly mourned but fondly remembered by his daughters, Bree (Corey) Barry and Brandice (Trenton) Searcy; grandsons, Jaxon Searcy, Beckett Barry, and Hudson Searcy; sister, Terrie Kerby; nieces, Tammy (Todd) Moorman, Jill (Jimmy) Gray, and Julie (Tom) Turner; and

WHEREAS, in addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother-in-law, Gary Kerby; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Maxedon leaves behind an indelible legacy of integrity and probity in public life, compassion and loyalty in private life, and diligence and dedication in all his chosen endeavors; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should remember the bountiful life of this exceptional public servant and human being; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we honor the memory of Wayne Alexander Maxedon, reflecting fondly upon his impeccable character and his stalwart commitment to living the examined life with courage and conviction.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we extend our sympathy and offer our condolences to the family of Mr. Maxedon.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
